DUSSELDORF OCCUPIED BY BRITISH TROOPS, ACCORDING TO REPORT

Spartacans There Ousted, Says Dispatch From Berlin: Government Troops in Berlin Take Last Important Stronghold From the Spartacans

Copenhagen, Jan. 12.—Via London, Jan. 13.—British troops have occupied Dusseldorf, which has been in the hands of the Spartacans, according to a report from Berlin.

Dusseldorf is a town in the Rhenish Province. It is situated on the right bank of the Rhine, twenty-five miles northwest of Cologne.

Berlin, Jan. 12.—6 p. m.—(Associated Press).—The Silesian Railway Station, which was the last important Spartacan stronghold in Greater Berlin, now is in possession of the Government forces.

Berlin, Jan. 12.—3.30 p. m.—(Associated Press).—The Spartacans forces, it is now learned, withdrew from the Boetow brewery during the night, and are preparing to make a last stand in the Silesian Railway Station, on the east bank of the Spree southeast of the former royal palace. The number of Spartacans at the station is estimated to be 600, including a number of women. The position is strongly fortified.

Among the various Bolshevik nests which have been cleaned out by the Government troops is the office of the Russian Bolshevik telegraph agency, which served as Bolshevik propaganda headquarters and also had a large part in handling Russian money furnished the Spartacans. Long lists of members of the Spartacan group and of anarchists were found. The personnel of the agency, mainly Russians, made a brief resistance.

Fighting Again.
London, Jan. 12.—The armistice between the contending factions in Berlin has been broken and fighting has been resumed, according to Copenhagen advices received here. Reports from Berlin indicate, it is reported, that the Spartacan forces have lost 1,300 through the outbreak of the revolution and that there are many more wounded. Government troops to the number of 13,000 arrived in Berlin on Saturday, but with the strengthening of its military forces, the Cabinet is reported to be losing its political influence among the masses. Twenty-eight mass meetings were planned for to-day at Berlin for the purpose of settling the trend. These meetings, which were to be addressed by Ministers and party leaders, were expected to lead to a renewal of the collisions with the Spartacans.

The Spartacan leaders had been able to conclude an armistice on fairly even terms. It was stipulated that the Government troops should not be re-armed during the truce nor resume operations without a half-day's notice.

Gain For Government.
Berlin, Jan. 13.—Government forces have captured the police headquarters after a short bombardment. When the fighting broke out, the Spartacans stormed the building with a cheer and took several hundred prisoners. No government troops were killed in this encounter.

It is reported that the Bolsheviks are believed to have suffered the loss of fifty killed and many wounded. The soldiers were enraged at the shooting of the white flag bearers and the Bolsheviks are said to have fared badly in the final clash.

Evacuated Buildings.
Copenhagen, Jan. 13.—Spartacan adherents evacuated the Morse and Ullstein premises in Berlin, and the building occupied by the Wolff Bureau Saturday night. Those who were captured were released after having surrendered their weapons and ammunition, according to a Berlin dispatch arriving here by way of Frankfurt.

Building Recaptured.
Berlin, Jan. 12.—(Via London, Jan. 13).—(Associated Press).—The plant of the Vorwaerts was recaptured by Government troops this morning in heavy fighting. Three hundred Spartacans are reported to have been taken prisoner. More than twenty Spartacans were killed and forty wounded.

Sneaked Away.
Berlin, Jan. 12.—12.25 p. m.—(Via London, Jan. 13).—(Associated Press).—The determination of the revolutionary forces to maintain their tenure of the bourgeoisie newspaper offices came to an inglorious end Saturday night. The Spartacans and Independent Socialists were occupying the plant when the Vorwaerts Zeitung. The Morgen Post and other journals are printed, began to sneak away over the rooftops as soon as darkness fell. The soldiers, when they were alerted, found the building unoccupied.

The garrison of The Tagblatt office paraded for a while with the Government forces, the men finally being permitted to withdraw with their weapons. Later they were disarmed and imprisoned by troops which were cleaning up the inner city of Bolshevik snipers.

Several nests of snipers were uncovered by Government forces, notably in the section around the Anhalt Station. One of these nests contained a machine gun.

French Send German and an Austrian to Jail for Life Terms

Paris, Jan. 13.—A French court-martial has sentenced to imprisonment for life the German named Holts and the Austrian named Karmelich who in 1917 attempted to invade French Somme, east of Abyssinia and west of the Gulf of Aden, at the head of a force of native troops. Holts was secretary of the German legation in Abyssinia and Karmelich was his assistant. French troops put to flight the native force and captured the leaders.

Montenegrins Ask That Italian Troops Leave Their Country

Belgrade, Jan. 13.—The immediate withdrawal from Montenegro of all the Italian troops is demanded in a resolution passed by the Montenegrin National Assembly. The resolution alludes to the presence of Italian troops in Montenegro, "now a part of the new state of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes," as "not dictated by any military necessity, as stable peace reigns in the country."

PADEREWSKI WOUNDED BY FANATIC BUT CONTINUES WORK IN POLISH CAPITAL

London, Jan. 13.—Ignace Jan Paderewski, the Polish leader, was slightly wounded by an assassin who entered the room of his hotel in Warsaw and fired one shot at him, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen, reporting advices from Vienna. Several Bolsheviks implicated in the plot have been arrested.

Geneva, Jan. 13.—Ignace Jan Paderewski, the Polish leader, was slightly wounded in an attack made upon him by a would-be assassin in Warsaw, according to a telegram received by friends here. He is said to be continuing his work with General Joseph Pilsudski in the reconstruction of the Polish Government and is planning measures against the Bolsheviks.

Paris, Jan. 13.—Inquiry in official American circles here today elicited the information that the United States Government has not undertaken to send troops to Poland as indicated by Paris newspapers.

A dispatch from Paris yesterday said the Temps stated that the United States Government had indicated to the Allied Governments that it was ready to send an American expeditionary corps to Poland. This force, the newspaper added, would be able "at least to double the support given by two Polish divisions to be sent from the western front and enable the Poles victoriously to resist the Bolsheviks."

In discussing yesterday's meeting of the Supreme Inter-Allied Council, the Temps said that while the conditions to be laid down for the renewal of the armistice between the Allies and Germany were the subject of most of the discussion, the sending of military assistance to Poland also was taken up.

Lieut.-Col. Harold Riley, 27th Battalion, who ensured the complete success of his battalion during four days' hard fighting.

Lieut.-Col. Charles Stewart, of the Princess Patricia's, who overcame great odds in strongly fortified positions.

SIR WM. PETERSON SUFFERS PARALYSIS

Principal of McGill Stricken Before Audience in Montreal Yesterday

Montreal, Jan. 13.—In the presence of a large audience, including many prominent citizens assembled in Emmanuel Church here to hear Harry Lauder yesterday afternoon, Sir William Peterson, principal of McGill University, who was presiding at the meeting, was stricken with a paralytic seizure, as a result of which it was necessary to convey him at once to the Royal Victoria Hospital.

Sir William had complained of feeling unwell, and Rev. George Adams tried to persuade him from attending the meeting, but he insisted, and was helped to the platform by the pastor. It was during the singing of a quartette that W. G. Ross called attention to Sir William's condition, and there was no mistake about its seriousness.

Sir William, who was attended at once by Dr. Armstrong and one or two other medical men in the audience, was found to be suffering from a stroke of paralysis which affected his entire right side, and it was further stated that there was a hemorrhage of the brain.

Sir William was born in 1856.

TURMOIL DIES DOWN IN BUENOS AIRES

At Four This Morning Government Seemed to Have Control

Buenos Aires, Jan. 13.—At four o'clock this morning it was stated at police headquarters that no serious clashes had been reported anywhere since ten o'clock last night. At that hour it was believed the Government had the situation in hand.

Several hundred student volunteers, who had been assembled at the naval club to await orders, were dismissed at midnight.

Reports from Montevideo say that the authorities there are strengthening their forces against the Bolshevik movement. Troops have been thrown around Villa de Cerro, localizing strike disorders in that district, where there are American packing houses.

REPUBLIC IS DECLARED AT BREMEN; LUXEMBURG ALSO HAS BECOME A REPUBLIC

Basel, Jan. 13.—A Socialist Republic has been proclaimed at Bremen, according to a dispatch from Munich. The communists in Bremen have taken the places of the majority Socialists on the Soldiers' and Workmen's Council and have sent a message to the Ebert Government demanding that it resign.

They also are reported to have sent a telegram to the Russian Bolsheviks expressing the hope that the revolutions in Russia and Germany will be victorious.

Metz, Jan. 12.—Via London, Jan. 13.—(Associated Press).—Luxemburg was proclaimed a republic on Friday, when the Grand Duchess Marie retired from the capital, taking up quarters in a chateau nearby.

The Chamber had an excited meeting, the Clericals quitting the House in a body.

PREPARATIONS FOR SESSION AT OTTAWA

Sir T. White Tells of Government's Reconstruction and Other Plans

HOUSES WILL MEET EARLY IN FEBRUARY

Ottawa, Jan. 13.—In an interview to-day the Acting Prime Minister, Sir Thomas White, indicated to the press the preparations which have been made for the coming session of Parliament and the progress accomplished in developing the demobilization, repatriation and reconstruction programme of the Government under the several Ministers whose Departments are immediately concerned. The following is an official outline of the position respecting these matters:

Active preparations now are being made for the legislative work of the coming session of Parliament, which is to be called early in February. The precise date will be fixed and announced this week. Most of the important legislation already has been drafted. The estimates of nearly all the Departments were in by the end of December and are ready for final revision.

Demobilization.
The most pressing problems which have confronted the Government since the armistice began have been those relating to demobilization and so-called reconstruction, or rather the re-adjustment of business and industrial conditions from a war to a peace basis.

Complete plans for the demobilization and return to Canada of the Canadian Expeditionary Force and the wives and other dependents overseas have been worked out between the Militia Department here and the Overseas Minister in consultation with Lieut.-Gen. Sir Arthur Currie and others of the militia authorities there. Having regard to the available amount of shipping, the limitation of railway facilities from the Canadian Atlantic ports and the fact that there are in addition to the forces overseas, women and children dependents to the number of 53,000, the task is both heavy and difficult. Naturally everyone wants his or her own returned immediately, and there consequently is the greatest pressure on the Government both at home and overseas. Crowding and resultant inconvenience are bound to occur if the demobilization is allowed to proceed rapidly. Every possible effort (Concluded on page 3.)

GERMAN VESSELS FOR ALLIED TROOPS

Allies Want Ships to Carry Men Home to Canada and States

Paris, Jan. 13.—British and American representatives will hold a conference with German Admiralty authorities at Treves on Wednesday for the purpose of acquiring possession of German and Austrian passenger ships for the transportation of troops. Great Britain will be represented by Admiral Browning, R. N. Hurley, chairman of the United States Shipping Board, and Admiral Benson will be the representatives of the United States.

It is proposed that the United States give Austria and Germany food in return for the ships. It is planned that the British will get smaller ships for the return of troops to Australia and Canada, while the United States will have the big ships, which will include virtually all the Hamburg-American liners, including the Imperator. This division is suggested because the big liner are too large for the Canadian and Australian harbors. If this arrangement becomes effective, it will increase the flow of troops to America by about 70,000 a month. This will make a total capacity of shipping approximately 150,000 men each month.

Reports from Montevideo say that the authorities there are strengthening their forces against the Bolshevik movement. Troops have been thrown around Villa de Cerro, localizing strike disorders in that district, where there are American packing houses.

LEADERS OF ALLIES IN SESSION IN PARIS DISCUSS PROGRAMME

Present Gathering Is Really First Actual Session of Peace Conference; Representatives Arranging Subjects and Scheme of Procedure.

Paris, Jan. 13.—The first actual session of the Peace Conference is being held to-day, although it is officially designated as one of the series of conversations for laying the groundwork for the structure which later will be presented to the formal assembly of the delegates of all the nations. Yesterday's meeting was preliminary to to-day's, as to-day's is preliminary to to-morrow's and those of the coming weeks and months.

In these conversations the details of the programme to be carried out will be taken up—what subjects will be considered at the meetings and the roles of expert advisers under which the various matters will be considered.

To-day's meeting probably will deal with the important questions

WHITTAKER HEAD OF PROVINCIAL G.W.V.A.

Vancouver Captain Elected President; Drinnan Paid Organizing Secretary

Vancouver, Jan. 13.—Captain C. W. Whittaker, of Vancouver, was elected President of the Provincial Great War Veterans' Association at the annual meeting of the organization held on Saturday and Sunday in the clubrooms of the local association. Captain Whittaker has been vice-president of the local G. W. V. A. for the past year. Lieut.-Colonel J. R. Vickers, who was the officer commanding the 132nd Rocky Mountain Rangers from Kamloops, was chosen to be the first vice-president, while Thomas M. Harnett, of Vancouver, was elected second vice-president. The recording secretary is W. F. Reid, of North Vancouver, and the treasurer, H. L. Hopkins, of Alberni. The following were appointed members of the executive: Major Shaw, Victoria; T. A. Barnard, New Westminster; H. R. Douglas, North Vancouver; T. D. Trapp, New Westminster; W. Southern, Ladysmith; G. P. Heinekey, Victoria; Watcrman, Penticton; Forst, Prince Rupert.

Paid Secretary.
It was decided that an organizing secretary for the Province should be appointed, and Walter Drinnan, retired president of the Vancouver G. W. V. A., was chosen for this position, which carries with it a salary of $200 a month and expenses. In speaking to the members present, Mr. Drinnan announced that he had the assurance of the Government that the Provincial Government would finance the association to the extent of $25,000.

The convention, which opened on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, did not conclude its labors until late Sunday night. There were over thirty delegates present, representing eighteen or twenty of the thirty local throughout British Columbia. Representatives were present from Victoria, Prince Rupert, New Westminster, Alberni, Ladysmith, Coquitlam, Kelowna, Penticton, Revelstoke, Chilliwack, Point Grey, Nanaimo and Hunt-Ingham. A. W. Webb, of Victoria, who has been acting-president since David Loughnan went to Ottawa, occupied the chair.

Land Question.
There were several important questions taken up by the meeting of particular interest to the returned men. The land settlement problem was discussed, and it was decided to appoint a committee which, at the expense of the Government, should go through British Columbia examining the sites already selected by returned soldiers and pick out new ones. The provincial association also wants the fishing waters of the Province thrown open to all returned men. In connection with this fishing question it was decided to ask that the loan of $2,500, which is given to soldiers who settle on the land, also should be given to those who take up fishing.

Colonel C. E. Doherty, who has been the Assistant Director of Medical Services for the local military district, was appointed to be provincial representative on the Dominion executive of the G. W. V. A.

JAPAN WITHDRAWING 30,000 TROOPS FROM THE SIBERIAN FIELD

Vladivostok, Jan. 9.—(Associated Press).—The Japanese are preparing for the withdrawal of their reserve forces, consisting of three regiments, stationed in Manchuria and Siberia.

Concentration for this purpose will take place from February 10 to February 20 and will effect 30,000 men.

TWO AVIATORS IN TEXAS ARE KILLED

Fort Worth, Tex., Jan. 13.—Two aviators of Carruthers Field were killed here this morning when their plane dropped into a tall spin and fell 5,000 feet. They were Lieut. John E. Garbut, of Sheridan, Wyo., and Mechanic B. L. Quinn, of Pittsburg, Pa.

of organization by which the Peace Conference will function. It also is expected to make a start toward a decision on one of the questions uppermost in the public mind—whether the sessions will be under the full observation of the world or whether they will be secret.

Nothing has developed to alter the statement that the American delegates are primarily concerned with the creation of a League of Nations and the making of a just peace. Territorial ambitions, local quarrels and rivalry for economic advantages among the European delegates are secondary in the minds of the Americans.

Reports that the American delegation has agreed on a working plan for League of Nations and that it will be the first thing to be laid before the Conference have been current in Paris, but all outward evidence in official quarters points in the other direction. It is known that as late as President Wilson's return from Italy he was not prepared to lay down a working plan, and that he preferred to have other plans originating among the Entente delegates offered first. It was felt that such a procedure, besides having a tactical advantage, would show desirable deference to the European statesmen having plans to submit. It was reported some time ago that the most that was hoped for before Mr. Wilson's return to the United States was a general agreement on broad principles. There is no reason now to change that forecast.

Session Yesterday.
Paris, Jan. 12.—(Havas).—Yesterday's session of the Supreme Council of the Allies was a lengthy one, lasting from 2.45 p. m. to 6.45 o'clock. The degree to which the Germans had fulfilled their conditions of the armistice was one of the important matters before the Council, which heard Marshal Foch's report on this subject.

Representation.
Paris, Jan. 13.—The first business before the Supreme War Council when it reassembled this afternoon was the settlement of the question of representation at the first session of the Inter-Allied Conference. It is still unsettled what nations will be represented or the number of delegates which will be allotted to each. It has developed, however, that China will not be represented by Japan, but will have her own delegation.

The efforts of the French press to bring to the fore the question of the status of Entente and American troops in Russia and the advisability of sending troops into Poland to check the advance of the Bolsheviks, it is understood, have been without success so far. The United States, it is said, will (Concluded on page 4.)

FOOD SUPPLIES TO STOP BOLSHEVISM

Wilson Urges Congress to Appropriate $100,000,000 for European Relief

Washington, Jan. 13.—In a message to-day solemnly urging Congress to appropriate the $100,000,000 requested for European food relief, President Wilson said Bolshevism, steadily advancing westward, cannot be stopped by force, but could be stopped by food. Food relief, he said, was the key to the whole situation and the solution of peace.

A message from Henry White, a member of the American peace delegation, to the State Department, said the "startling westward advance of Bolshevism" dominated the entire European situation above all else, and that it was of the utmost importance that the President's request be granted at once.

Bolshevism, Mr. White said, "now completely controls Russia and Poland and is spreading through Germany."

He added that it was impossible to inaugurate the Peace Conference under proper auspices without previous adequate provisions to cope with this situation.

German-Austria.
Vienna, Jan. 13.—Via Amsterdam to London, Jan. 13.—It will be possible to maintain the present rations of bread and meat in Vienna and the remainder of German-Austria until the middle of February, the Food Ministry announced to-day, because of its having been supplied by the Entente Food Commission with a quantity of grain.

GEN. CURRIE WORKING AT DEMOBILIZATION

Leader Handling Task as it Affects Troops in France Only

Toronto, Jan. 13.—A special dispatch to The Toronto Globe from London, says:

Lieut.-Gen. Sir Arthur Currie, commander of the Canadian Corps, is undertaking the demobilization of the Canadian troops in France only, regarding that as an essentially military duty. To correspondents he said he would stay on this side of the Atlantic until every Canadian soldier new in France had been landed in Canada. He will go to Brighton to see his children and expects to return to France this week to explain personally the Government's demobilization and other plans affecting the troops, to as many units of the Third Division as possible. As previously stated, that division will be the first to be demobilized. At intervals, General Currie will be in Paris when needed by Sir Robert Borden for consultation at the Peace Conference.

It is understood that the Third Division will return to Canada by way of England, where many of the men have wives and other relatives. It is hoped all will be returning by March and the last of the Canadians by the end of June. In order to assist in the smooth working of the return, which will be by units, some officers of the respective battalions will arrive in Canada a week ahead of their battalion and complete arrangements for the reception and disposal of the men at the various centres.

Speeches by Borden.

London, Jan. 13.—Sir Robert Borden while in France, whenever opportunity offers, will address gatherings of Canadian troops on general subjects affecting the Dominion, and men of the Canadian Corps particularly.

PHYSICIAN GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER, SAYS SASKATCHEWAN JURY

Yorkton, Sask., Jan. 13.—Dr. Cyril Mueller, a physician of Norway, Sask., was found guilty on Saturday of manslaughter in connection with the death of Mrs. Kathleen Thorne, wife of Corpl. Thorne, of Norway, Sask., in January, 1917. The jury made a recommendation of mercy.

The evidence for the crown showed that the accused did not use reasonable care in the sterilization of his hands and instruments at the time of the confinement of the deceased, as a result of which infection followed, leading to her death from peritonitis a few days later.

Dr. Mueller is a graduate of McGill University, and has practiced in England, Scotland and Germany. Sentence has not yet been pronounced by Mr. Justice Elwood.

ABLE TO GO DOWN TOWN FIRST TIME IN MANY MONTHS

Mrs. Cox's Improvement Since Taking Tanlac Proved A Grand Surprise

"It surely is a Tanlac neighborhood out where I live, for most everybody I know is taking it with fine results," recently said Mrs. Flora Cox, of 1136 Vernon Avenue, N. E. Portland, in telling of her interesting experience with the famous medicine.

"I was in such a bad state of health," continued Mrs. Cox, "that for the last three years I was hardly able to go out anywhere at all. Soon after eating anything I would have a stuffy feeling like my stomach was filled with gas, and often during the night my heart would beat so hard and fast I would simply have to gasp for breath, and sometimes when going about the house I would get so dizzy and feel so faint and weak that I wouldn't dare stoop over because I was afraid of falling. My nerves were so upset that I just couldn't stand any noise or excitement, and I would lie awake night after night listening to the ticking of the clock and feeling like I would go distracted if I didn't get some sleep or rest. My joints would swell and ache with rheumatism till I could hardly stand the agony, and I would have such terrible nervous headaches that many a time I felt like I would be better off dead than alive. Medicines did me no good and I felt so lifeless it was all I could do to sit myself around and I had almost given up hope of ever getting well."

"Well, now to show what Tanlac has done for me, my nerves are quieter, I have gotten entirely over those terrible headaches and I sleep all night like a baby. That rheumatism is almost gone, and I am so much stronger now that I do a lot of work that I didn't dare attempt before. Why just last week I went up town to do some shopping and it was the first time in many months that I had been able to get that far from the house and I was mighty glad to be able to walk around town again. I expected to get back home tired to death and ready to drop, but the way I kept up was a grand surprise not only to me but to my friends as well, for I hardly felt the exertion at all. I have gotten all this wonderful improvement from only four bottles of Tanlac, and I am going to keep on taking it as long as it continues to help me like it has and is still doing, for I just can't afford to miss a single dose."

GERMAN RAIDS ON BRITAIN SUMMARIZED

5,611 Persons Killed or Injured by Aircraft and Warships

London, Jan. 13.—In the raids on points in the United Kingdom by the Germans during the war, 5,611 persons were killed or injured, of whom 4,769 were civilians. An official summary of the casualties caused by German airships and aeroplanes and the sea shows the casualties among civilians: killed, 554 men, 411 women, 295 children; injured, 1,508 men, 1,120 women and 773 children.

There were 310 soldiers and sailors killed and 531 injured.

There were fifty-one raids by airships, causing the deaths of 498 civilians, and the injury of 1,336 and the killing of fifty-eight soldiers and sailors and injuring of 121.

In fifty-nine aeroplane raids, 619 civilians were killed and 1,650 were injured. In these raids 238 soldiers and sailors were killed and 400 injured.

In twelve bombardments from the sea 143 civilians were killed and 604 wounded, while fourteen soldiers and sailors were killed and thirty injured.

The greatest losses inflicted by zeppelins were in a raid on Norfolk, Suffolk and the home counties of London on October 13, 1917, when fifty-four civilians and seventeen soldiers and sailors were killed, and in West Suffolk and the Midland counties on January 31, 1916, when seventy civilians were killed and 112 injured.

The raid on Lincolnshire, Essex and Suffolk on March 31 of the same year caused the deaths of seventeen civilians and thirty-one soldiers and sailors.

One Hundred and Sixty-Two Killed.
The most serious aeroplane raid was that at Margate, Essex, and London on June 13, 1917, when 158 civilians and four soldiers and sailors were killed. The next in severity was that on Kent on September 4 of the same year, when 131 soldiers and sailors lost their lives. On that occasion a crowded barracks was hit. Almost as severe as the raid on Kent was that on Folkestone on May 25, 1917, when seventy-seven civilians and eighteen soldiers and sailors were killed.

The only bombardment from the sea in which there were heavy casualties was that directed against Hartlepool, Scarborough and Whitby on December 16, 1914, when 127 civilians and ten soldiers and sailors were killed and 567 civilians and twenty-five soldiers and sailors were injured.

Twenty-One Were Killed in Railway Smash in States

Batavia, N. Y., Jan. 13.—Officials of the New York Central Railway today were continuing their investigation to place the blame for the wreck at South Byron yesterday in which twenty-one persons were killed, while attempts were renewed to identify the thirteen bodies still in Batavia under-taking establishments.

The collision was a rear-end one. The "Southwestern Limited," west-bound, crashed into the "Wolverine Limited," also west-bound, which had stopped to take on an extra engine.

Every person in the rear Pullman coach of the "Wolverine" was killed.

Wait Until the "Number" ANSWERS Or the Operator Reports

Very often a subscriber will call a number and, if an almost instantaneous connection is not established, will hang up and try again later. He feels that minutes have elapsed while, in reality it has been but a matter of a few seconds.

This hanging up of your telephone receiver means that your time and the time and labor of the operator has been wasted. If the called party comes on the line, the operator has to explain.

Remaining at your telephone until you get a report or the called party answers means the saving in the time and effort of three parties.

$1,000,000 FIRE IN CITY OF MONTREAL

140 Automobiles Ruined in Fire Which Destroyed Plant of Jennings and Co.

Montreal, Jan. 13.—More than $1,000,000 damage was caused here yesterday afternoon by a spectacular fire which destroyed the plant of Jennings & Company.

One hundred and forty automobiles, including nine ambulances made to the order of the Canadian Government and ready for shipment, were made a total loss, and the premises of the Hudson's Bay Company and S. J. Carter & Company were seriously damaged when the flames spread temporarily beyond the control of the firemen, at one time leaping clear across the street and setting ablaze the premises of the Hudson's Bay Company.

Fireman Jack Roche suffered a fracture of the collar bone when a part of a wall fell on him, and another fireman was taken to a hospital with minor injuries.

Suspicion attaches to the origin of the fire. According to officials of the Jennings Company, there had been a feeling of danger of someone setting the place afire for some time, and it was so acute that military protection had actually been asked for.

The fire broke out shortly after 1 o'clock, and in about two hours was under control. The destroyed premises are partially covered by insurance.

Old Folks' Coughs, Catarrh, Bronchitis Quickly Cured

This Tells of a Method That Cures Without Using Drugs.

Elderly people take cold easily. Unlike young folks, they recover slowly. That is why so many people past middle life die of pneumonia.

Cough Syrups seldom do much good because they upset digestion. Any doctor knows that a much more effective treatment is "CATARRHOZONE," which heals and soothes the irritated surfaces of the throat.

In using Catarrhazone you do not take medicine into the stomach—you simply breathe into the throat, nose and lungs rich piney balsamic vapor, so full of healing power that colds, catarrh and bronchitis disappear almost instantly.

The germ-killing balsamic vapor mixes with the breath, descends through the throat, down the bronchial tubes, and finally reaches the deepest air cells in the lungs. All parts are soothed with rich, pure medicinal essences, whereas with a syrup the affected parts could not be reached and harm would result through burning the stomach with drugs.

A Catarrhazone inhaler in your pocket or purse enables you to stop a cold with the first sneeze. Large size costs $1.00 and supplies treatment for two months, small size, 50c; trial size, 25c; all storekeepers and druggists, or The Catarrhazone Co., Kingston, Canada.

PREPARATIONS FOR SESSION AT OTTAWA

will be made to minimize discomfort to the returning men and their families.

Repatriation.

Associated with demobilization is the important work of repatriation, that is to say, the restoration of the returned soldier to civil life and occupation. This great service is being carried out by a Committee of the Cabinet and a nation-wide organization which has been created embracing the Departments of the Dominion Government in charge of this work, together with the Provincial Governments, municipalities, the Great War Veterans' Association, manufacturers and labor organizations, fraternal societies, women's associations and, speaking generally, all other organizations capable of rendering assistance in the great project. It is believed Canada will possess the finest organization in the world to handle the repatriation problem. The important question of facilitating land settlement by returned soldiers has received most careful attention.

Bills Promised.

With regard to reconstruction, many important and effectual measures have been taken by the Government since the armistice began and others which will require legislative sanction and authority will be presented to Parliament immediately after the session is convened.

Among the measures taken by Order-in-Council may be specially mentioned the following:

Resumption of important public works interrupted by the war, such as the Welland and Trent Canal enlargements and extensions and work on national ports and harbors. This programme will be materially added to in the estimates which will be presented to the House of Commons. The policy of the Government in this regard is very clear. Money will not be needlessly spent. The works or buildings proceeded with must be essential or of a productive character from a national standpoint. Where existing postoffice buildings or other public buildings will serve public requirements, new ones will not be built. To do otherwise would be not only to expend public money needlessly, but to increase the permanent maintenance charges by keeping up unnecessarily large and expensive buildings. The annual expenditure of the Government will be so greatly increased by the war debt and pensions that economy must be exercised in other directions as far as is consistent with public interest and convenience.

Shipbuilding.

An extensive shipbuilding programme is under way which will involve the expenditure of $75,000,000. This policy, on the part of the Marine Department, will keep thousands of workmen engaged at good wages and stimulate activity in many subsidiary industrial enterprises.

With the object of assisting in promoting better housing conditions in congested industrial districts throughout Canada and thus improving the health and morality of the public generally, as well as providing employment in the building trades, the Government has set aside $25,000,000 as a fund to be lent to Provincial Governments which may be willing to take up the scheme, either directly or through municipalities or otherwise. Several of the Provincial Governments already are taking active steps toward the realization of a substantial programme of house construction with the opening of spring.

Railway Work

Large orders for steel rails and rolling stock have been placed by the Government for its own railway system and the Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk Companies, with which the matter was promptly taken up by the Government. Many needed betterments, improvements and extensions will be proceeded with as soon as the weather permits. This class of work will provide employment for many thousands of men when spring opens.

Trade.

Immediately before the cessation of hostilities an Overseas Trade Commission was named. Its headquarters are in London and its purpose is to obtain business for Canada arising out of the reconstruction work in the devastated areas of Europe. Its counterpart in Canada is the Canadian Trade Commission at Ottawa. Already, through credits established here, substantial orders have been obtained, particularly one for $40,000,000 worth of Canadian lumber.

One of the notable measures taken since the armistice was signed is the provision of a generous war gratuity for the members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force which will enable them and their families to bridge over the period between their discharge and Important Legislation.

It is probable that the Speech from the Throne will foreshadow important legislation relative to the reconstruction problem in Canada. It is known that the Government has under consideration various measures designed to promote not only the material prosperity but also the efficiency, health and general welfare of the people throughout the Dominion.

Date of Opening.

Ottawa, Jan. 13.—With the return to Ottawa of Hon. Arthur Meighen and Hon. J. D. Reid the Cabinet will determine the date on which Parliament is to meet. A meeting of the Cabinet was held this afternoon.

Preparations have been under way for some weeks with a view to Parliament meeting early next month. The suggestion is made that the method of last session in opening on a Monday should be followed. In that event the most likely date is Monday, February 10.

On the other hand the old practice of opening on Thursday is favored by many. February 6 and February 13 are probable dates should the Cabinet decide to open Parliament on a Thursday.

DR. STANSFIELD'S REPORT.

According to Dr. Stansfield's illuminating report, the cost of electric power is the key to the development of the iron and steel industry in this Province on a profitable basis by present methods. We have the ore, abundant material for the production of charcoal for fluxing purposes, and water powers for the development of electrical energy, but the only concern which now has electric power to sell is the B.C. Electric Company, and the figures it quoted to Dr. Stansfield are too high to guarantee the electric smelting of iron on a large scale by existing process at a cost which would enable the product to compete with the output of other localities where production does not suffer from this and similar disabilities.

The total cost of producing a ton of pig iron under these conditions, the report points out, would be from $35 to $40 which, while much lower than the present high prices of this product, not improbably would be higher than the price it will bring when conditions become normal. Obviously, therefore, the development of our water power under such conditions as will effect a reduction in the price of this factor will be necessary, but this, the report emphasizes, is a laborious and costly undertaking, and Dr. Stansfield recommends that in the meantime, if the project of electric smelting on a small scale be pursued, the power be purchased from the private company.

There may be, however, an alternative opportunity which might change the whole situation. This is in the form of a new process of reducing iron ore, now in an experimental, but promising, stage, under which, if it should develop successfully, the electric power required under the present process might be replaced by coal or waste wood.

In any case the quantity of electric power required would be less than a third of that needed under existing methods. Foundry pig iron on that basis might be produced at $25 or $26 a ton, which would guarantee the commercial success of the undertaking.

Dr. Stansfield recommends, therefore, that the new process be investigated and, if it be found satisfactory, that steps be taken at once to produce pig iron, what power that will be required being purchased from the private company until other sources have been developed. He recommends, also, the development of one or more of the best iron ore deposits and the complete test of the ore; the reservation of a suitable water power for future development and the establishment of a plant for the economic production of charcoal from mill waste.

Unquestionably the Department of Mines can go a considerable way in carrying out these recommendations and we confidently predict that the Minister, Hon. Wm. Sloan, will see that this is done. The investigation of our iron ore deposits is now in hand, the reservation of suitable water powers should be an easy matter, and it should not be difficult to arrange with mills for the establishment of a plant for the economic production of charcoal when that commodity should be required. If, in the meantime, the new process referred to by Dr. Stansfield should turn out satisfactorily we shall have present such conditions as should make a strong appeal for the investment of capital.

INTERVENTION IN RUSSIA.

The British Government's proposal to the Government of France regarding Russia is less surprising than the publication of it by M. Pichon, the French Minister for Foreign Affairs. It may be that this has been done at the request of the British Government or in consequence of an agreement between the two Governments, but in that case the first news of the proposal might be expected to come from London. If there has been no arrangement for the publication, M. Pichon's object in issuing the statement evidently is to anticipate any controversy that might arise on the subject by a prompt justification of France's attitude.

The British proposal is that a message be sent to the various factions in Russia urging them to agree to a truce pending a Peace Conference in order that the Conference might be able to facilitate the restoration of peace in that unhappy country. To that end, if the different authorities between the Vistula and the Pacific would compose their differences, they could have representation at the Conference and help in a general plan to put Russia on her feet.

The proposal is fair and reasonable, but we doubt if it would be accepted in Russia even if France and the other Allies agreed to join in sending it. Ulanoff and Bronstein have proclaimed a class war; they are out to exterminate all elements which do not accept their dictatorship. They are carrying war into Estonia, Ukraine, Courland, Lithuania and Poland, to impose their doctrine there by force, whether the people of those districts want it or not. Unless they abandon their methods and accord other people than those who adopt their views the right to live and to retain their own political beliefs there cannot be truce in Russia, for those who oppose them will continue to fight for their own.

Eventually, Russia will get rid of Bolshevism just as France got rid of Jacobinism. Violence being its weapon from first to last, because it otherwise could not hold its own, it will ultimately be destroyed by violence. If the Russian people had been half as enlightened and free as the people of their former allies they would have knocked Bolshevism on the head long ago.

But the Russian people are ignorant and incapable of organization; they are several centuries behind the times, and just as they were helpless under the repression of Czarism, they are helpless under the repression of Ulanoff, Bronstein, Jake Peters and Bill Shatoff, who, by the way, had nothing to do with the revolution, and in every instance were in foreign countries when the upheaval occurred. The men who precipitated the revolution have been either destroyed or driven from the country by the Bolsheviks because of the very aspirations which caused them to raise the standard of revolt. They wanted democratic government and freedom for the whole Russian people and these are as objectionable to the Bolsheviks as they were to the bureaucrats in the time of the Czar.

There is, however, strong opposition among the Anglo-Saxon nations to anything that savors of military intervention in Russia. They take the view that the Russian mess is for Russia to clean up; that the Russian people must find their own way out of their trouble, as other peoples at different epochs of their histories have had to find the way, even though that way be one of great suffering and privation.

Their statesmen remember, also, what happened in Europe a little more than a century and a quarter ago. The other nations of Europe attempted to intervene in France to free the country from the Jacobins, and that intervention caused France to militarize herself, and opened the way to the military despotism and conquests of Napoleon and twenty years of war.

Thus in intervention in Russia, albeit with the best of motives and for the relief of millions of people now in abject misery, always lies the danger of the history of 1795 and onward repeating itself, of the erection in the place of the Bolsheviks of a military dictatorship that might organize the great human and material resources of the country for war and run amok through Europe. Whatever intervention there should be should be solely with the object of supplying food and other necessities to the Russian people. If the Allies are not permitted to do this they should not proceed further.

France, having experienced the horrors of Bolshevism under another name, naturally fears a repetition of it through its spread to Germany and westward, but there seems little fear that it will gain control of Germany unless famine sets in there in a large scale. Bolshevism is merely anarchy and its chief ally is hunger. There is bound to be much violence and upheaval in the German reaction from Prussian military autocracy, but the German people are not illiterate like the Russians, they have the horrors of Bolshevism in their neighbor before them, and already they appear to have decided that whatever changes they desire to take place in their political affairs shall have no room for the Spartacists, the German counterpart of the Russian Bolsheviks.

TRY THE PACIFIC PORTS.

Hon. J. A. Calder says there is enough shipping available to bring home more than 30,000 Canadian soldiers a month, but it is utterly impossible for the railways to handle more than that number after they have been landed in the Dominion. Mr. Calder, of course, is thinking of the railways running out of the Canadian Atlantic ports.

But why limit the problem of bringing soldiers and dependents to Canada to the Canadian Atlantic ports and the railways running out of them? Why not make use of the Canadian Pacific ports and the three transcontinentals which connect with them? The Empress of Asia is bringing about 1,300 troops to this coast by way of the Panama Canal, but that is because the vessel is about to resume her trans-Pacific service and has to come here anyway.

If the Government really desires to bring back more than 30,000 a month from Europe, and if there is enough shipping available for more than that number, it can easily do so by using the Panama Canal and the Canadian Pacific ports and railways. Indeed, by that means it would be able to bring an additional 20,000 a month to Canada and dispose of the whole problem in five months at the outside. Why use one funnel when there are two, especially when the second one in some ways is even better than the first?

On several occasions officials at Ottawa have stated that responsibility for the conditions on troopships bringing soldiers to Canada should be charged to the Canadian Minister of Militia in London. We have not yet heard from the Ministry of Militia in London, but no doubt officials there will not be averse to tossing the "buck" across the ocean to Ottawa. We wonder if those two Ministries of Militia and Defence maintained by the Canadian people are on speaking terms with one another, and what control Ottawa, the only national Canadian capital recognized by the constitution and by this country, has over Sir Edward Kemp and his associates in London.

A Berlin dispatch says the Spartacists have withdrawn from the brewery and will make their stand on the east bank of the Spree. As they have abandoned the brewery it is hard to see how they can hold the Spree very long. The brewery is the chief base of the Spree.

TRANS-ATLANTIC EXPORTS STOPPED

European Allied Ports Congested and Canadian Shippers Must Hold Back

Montreal, Jan. 13.—The arresting of almost the entire export shipments of Canada has been caused by an order from the Canadian Railway Board recently issued. At least sixty per cent. of this huge trade, amounting to something like half a million tons per month, will be put back in Canadian warehouses, elevators and mills. The embargo has been placed because the British and French ports have at present more than they can handle. The British Ministry of Shipping has advised that ships cannot be accepted. That means they cannot be loaded. St. John and Halifax must be piled, and that in turn means that Canadian shippers must hold their shipments as not to plug the transportation lines.

The length of time the embargo will remain in force depends on how soon the European ports can be cleared up. There is now sufficient freight at St. John and Halifax to meet the requirements of all vessels sailing during the present month.

LEADERS OF ALLIES IN SESSION IN PARIS DISCUSS PROGRAMME

not consent to accept in principle or as a military policy the task of using American forces in Poland at all or in Russia in larger numbers than already are employed.

Delivered by Germany
Paris, Jan. 13.—It is unofficially stated that under the terms of the armistice Germany had up to January 12 repatriated 458,000 French prisoners, leaving 28,000 remaining in Germany; that there are several hundred pieces of heavy artillery yet to be delivered, as well as 399 mine-throwers; that 1,367 locomotives out of the 5,000 stipulated have been turned over, and 61,650 railroad cars out of 150,000 and 4,422 motor trucks out of 5,000. The 1,700 aeroplanes called for by the armistice conditions have all been delivered.

Considered Procedure
Paris, Jan. 13 (Associated Press).—The Supreme Council of the Peace Congress took up the question of the procedure for the coming Congress session. The session dealt largely upon the number of delegates to represent each power. The proposal in the French programme, fixing the numbers variously at five, three, two and one representative, according to the part played by the nation in the war, brought forth certain objections, and the Council adjourned without ratifying it.

DUSSELDORF OCCUPIED BY BRITISH TROOPS ACCORDING TO REPORT

chine gun with a crew of six men. The gunners were wiped out because they attempted resistance.

Shot.
Short work was made by the soldiers of the loiterers, while civilians found carrying weapons without permission also were stood up against a wall.

There are indications that the Spartacists have begun to realize the gravity of the situation for them. Their military leaders have resigned, and Police Chief Eickhorn is reported to have moved his headquarters from police headquarters.

Dr. Liebknecht, traveling in an automobile and protected by a group of heavily-armed Spartacists with a machine gun, visited the newspaper office while they were still in possession of his followers. He made short speeches encouraging the men not to weaken, but to shoot all the Ebert-Scheidemann supporters.

Disarmed Troops
London, Jan. 13.—Spartacan forces outside Berlin have been able to a certain extent to interfere with the arrival of Government reinforcements. Near Leipzig they are reported to have disarmed three trainloads of troops on their way to Berlin.

The capture of The Vorwaerts building by Government troops is considered rather important strategically. The building was badly damaged by artillery fire and was falling down over the heads of the defenders before they surrendered.

A dispatch from Berlin dated at noon yesterday said the capture of the Spartacan office had been effected by the free use of hand grenades. The soldiers burned in the street an immense quantity of Bolshevik literature.

GEORGE LEDEBOUR ARRESTED IN BERLIN

Government Troops Also Take Ernest Mayer, Rosa Luxemburg and Radek

Berlin, Jan. 13.—Via London, Jan. 13. (Associated Press.) George Ledebour and Ernest Mayer, Independent Socialists, have been arrested by officers and soldiers. The charge against them has not been made public.

Ledebour has been one of the most active leaders against the Ebert Government.

Woman Arrested.
Berlin, Jan. 13.—12.29 p. m.—Via London, Jan. 13. Rosa Luxemburg, associated with Dr. Karl Liebknecht in the leadership of the rebellious Spartacan forces in Berlin, has been arrested by Government soldiers, according to a report in the Tagliche Rundschau. The arrest is said to have been made when the troops were cleaning out the central office of the Spartacists last night, when Dr. Liebknecht's son also is reported to have been taken.

Radek Arrested.
London, Jan. 13.—Karl Radek, one of the Russian Bolshevik emissaries in Berlin, has been arrested, according to Berlin advices to the Exchange Telegraph through Copenhagen.

The dispatch also reports the capture of the Bolshevik observatory by Government forces.

Complete Break.
London, Jan. 3.—The arrest by the Government in Berlin of George Ledebour, leader of the Independent Socialists, is looked upon as significant as a complete break in his relations with the Cabinet and presumably the end of the secret negotiations looking to a compromise of existing differences by arrangement for the disappearance of particularly objectionable persons of both sides and the postponement of elections for the National Assembly. There is no confirmation of the report that Dr. Liebknecht was killed. He has faded from sight, however, as has Chief of Police Eickhorn. His disappearance may have given rise to reports of his death or arrest.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Victoria Times, January 16, 1894.

The coast wires are only working as far as Otter Point, the gales of the past few days having driven them down beyond there.

The road that follows the beach from Fowl Bay around McNeil's Bay to Oak Bay, is to be extended to Cordova Bay, as it is said. If this is done, Victoria will have the best beach drive on the continent.

Victoria had an unwelcome visitor last evening in the shape of a howling gale from the southwest.

Jacob Behr's house at Laurel Point, James Bay, was burned about half-past eight last night.

Time was when some merchants vied with each other in extravagance of statement in their ads. The wise merchants of today vie with each other in the ACCURACY of their statements about goods and values. Nowadays deliberate misrepresentation in advertising would surely and quickly kill any store indulging in it.

A BEDTIME STORY

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE PUDDING

Copyright, 1918, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.
(By Howard R. Garis.)

Out in the kitchen of the hollow stump bungalow, where Uncle Wiggily Longears, the bunny rabbit gentleman, lived with Nurse Jane Puzzy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady housekeeper, there was a clattering, banging, tinpanny sort of sound.

"Nurse Jane!" called Uncle Wiggily, "are you making something good to eat?"

"I am, if you please," politely answered the muskrat lady, as she tied her whiskers around back of her ears so they wouldn't tickle her paws. "I am making a chocolate pudding."

"Oh, joy!" cried Uncle Wiggily, and his pink nose twinkled very fast indeed, for he loved chocolate pudding. "Are you making a large one?" he asked.

"Very large," answered Nurse Jane. "So large that, if you want to take a bit of the pudding to any of your friends, you may do so."

"Oh, double joy," cried Uncle Wiggily again, and he was happier than before, for you know it always makes you more glad to give something to someone, than it does to get it yourself.

"I'll take a bit of chocolate pudding to Grandfather Goosey Gander," said Uncle Wiggily. "He likes it and he hasn't had any in a long while."

"Well, the pudding soon will be baked," spoke Nurse Jane, "and you may take some to your friend."

So when the chocolate pudding was taken from the oven, and cooled a bit, Nurse Jane put a large slice in a pail, and covered it with a clean, white napkin.

"Be careful not to let the napkin get down on the chocolate pudding," begged the muskrat lady. "You know this kind of pudding is not like rice or cornmeal. Chocolate pudding is very dark, not to say black, and it will stain the napkin if any gets on."

"I'll be careful," said Uncle Wiggily. So off through the woods he started with his pail of chocolate pudding for Grandfather Goosey Gander.

"I know the old gentleman goose will like it," thought Uncle Wiggily, and just then, as he was hurrying along in his fur coat, for it was cold and blowy and snowy, all of a sudden Mr. Longears heard a sad little voice saying:

"Oh, dear! I can't take another step! I'm so tired! I shall have to leave the bag here in the snow!"

"Ha! That doesn't sound either like the skilful-sealery alligator, with humps on his tail, nor yet the blue-nosed hobo," thought Uncle Wiggily. "That sounds like some one in trouble, and I am going to help them."

So he peeked through the bushes and there he saw Floppy Twistytail, the little piggy boy, with a fire in front of him, resting on a pile of snow.

"What's the matter, Floppy?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"Oh, I've been to the store to get a bag of charcoal to make a fire in our pen-house," said the piggy boy. "But the bag is so heavy that I can't lift it any more."

"Ha! Then I will carry it for you," said Uncle Wiggily.

"Well, what is it?" growled the father of the girl, in no encouraging tone.

"I—I want to marry your daughter, sir!"

"What?" The old man's face grew purple. "Marry my daughter? I am astonished! What on earth do you mean, sir? You—"

"Now, now," soothed the youth, seeing doubt looming near and wanting to get some sort of satisfaction out of the interview, "don't talk that way. You are prejudiced against the girl. She's all right, really."

NOMINATIONS MADE IN COWICHAN ELECTION

Papers Are Filed for Private
Duncan and Major
Edwards

Nominations for the Cowichan Riding by-election were filed Saturday on behalf of Private Kenneth Duncan and Major P. B. Edwards, the two candidates in the field contesting the seat in the Provincial House.

Mr. Duncan's nomination was proposed by Dr. H. G. Rutherford and seconded by Edith Maitland-Douglass. The assentors were A. A. Muttter, R. S. Smith, Mrs. E. M. Morton, H. S. Prevost, H. W. Bevan, F. J. Bishop and R. McLean.

Major Edwards was proposed by Capt. Sprout, seconded by Alfred Lomas, with Harry Corney, L. A. Knox and J. G. Morley as assentors.

Social Personal

Capt. H. A. Langford and his son, Lieut. Horace Langford, R.N.V.R., went over to Vancouver on Saturday for a few days.

Mrs. (Col.) Holmes has returned to her home at Carberry Gardens after a visit to Vancouver, where she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Studd, Shaughnessy Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Dunford, of Pakenham Street, left on Friday afternoon for California where they will spend the winter months. They were accompanied by Mrs. Dunford's sister, Mrs. Pennyfather, and her daughter, Miss Pennyfather.

Capt. W. H. Marshall, M.C., D.C.M., M.S.M., of Ottawa, who was No. 1 of the original Canadian Expeditionary Force, attached to the famous Princess Patricia's, has arrived in the city from the East on his way to Siberia. He is a guest at the Strathcona Hotel pending his departure overseas.

G. G. Bushby, of 605 St. Charles Street, is suffering from a severe attack of influenza, but happily is improving and hopes to be about again at the beginning of next week. Two of Mr. Bushby's family have also been ill with the same malady.

From the Seattle Post-Intelligencer: "Miss Eleanor Dunsmuir, an appealing beauty of Victoria, is spending a few days in the city, guests at the New Washington Hotel. Miss Dunsmuir spent the holidays with Mrs. W. S. Peachy at her home on East Prospect Street, then returned to Victoria."

The friends of Mrs. Frances L. Williston will be pleased to hear that the news received from Washington on Christmas Day by Mrs. Acton, Niagara Street, of her death at No. 65 Base Hospital, France, on November 21, has proved to be incorrect. Mrs. Acton, a well-known Victoria business woman, has been in the city since December 15, in which Mrs. Williston states that she is in the best of health.

At "Brendalbane," Fort Street, on Friday evening the marriage was solemnized by Rev. Dr. Campbell of Richmond, of the city of Victoria. The bride was attended by Miss Philomena Robertson as bridesmaid, and the groomsmen were J. Clark. After a honeymoon trip among the British cities Mr. and Mrs. Clark will make their home in Victoria.

Miss Alma Hale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hale, of 202 Edward Street, left on Saturday afternoon for Vancouver en route for Ottawa, where her marriage is to take place to Mr. Brown, a warrant officer of H.M.C.S. Rainbow, formerly stationed at Esquimalt. Prior to her departure Miss Hale was the recipient of a handsome leather travelling case, the gift of her numerous friends, while her former colleagues in the Naval Yard, where she was employed as stenographer for some three or four years, presented her with a case of beautiful silverware.

"FLU" WORSE IN DELTA

Dr. Robert Oliver Will Go to the Mainland and Advise as to Inhibitory Regulations

According to a telegram received by the Provincial Board of Health this morning from Dr. A. A. King, Medical Health Officer for the Delta, the ravages of Spanish influenza are developing at an alarming rate, and the Provincial authorities are asked to send a medical man to advise on the necessity or otherwise of placing the whole district under inhibitory regulations once more.

The wire to the Department indicates that the second wave of the epidemic is of a much more virulent type than the visitation of the former occasion.

In order that the Provincial Board may be placed in possession of the actual conditions obtaining it has been arranged that Dr. Robert Oliver, son of Premier Oliver, left for the Mainland on Saturday afternoon's boat. Upon his recommendations will depend the action that will be taken by the health authorities.

A rather choleric golfer went out to play for the second time on a certain course. Evidently his fame had preceded him, for at the drive-off he found an interested audience of local youngsters.

"What's this?" demanded the choleric one, gazing at the assembly. "What do you want?"

"Nothing," was the non-committal rejoinder of the leader of the bunch. "Then clear off, every one of you!" exclaimed the player. "There isn't anything here for you to watch!"

"We didn't come to watch," returned the youngsters, without attempting to move on. "We came to listen."

Sarah: "She says she's going to travel hundreds of miles on her honeymoon."

Jane: "That's easy for 'er; 'er chap runs a merry-go-round!"

VICTIM OF RECENT TRAGEDY LOSES FEET

Thomas Douglas Undergoes
Operation as the Result of Exposure in Woods

As a result of his terrible ordeal in the Goldstream woods a few weeks ago, Thomas Douglas recently had both his feet amputated at Harbor View Sanitarium, North Vancouver.

Striking in towards the Goldstream Lakes, they lost their way in a blinding snow storm, and wandered about all night, without food or fire. The next morning Peters, completely exhausted, fell dead on the trail, and Douglas continued his weary march for days until he too could go no further. After he had lain under a log for two days and nights until his feet had become severely frozen, a search party discovered him in a terrible condition caused by his eight days of exposure and hunger. For some time he was a patient at the St. Joseph's Hospital here, where he was slowly nursed back to life. He suffered much, however, from the freezing of his feet, and after his removal to the Mainland amputation was considered necessary.

North Ward Branch

At the military 500 party which is to be held in the North Ward Rooms, Scott Building, on Thursday next, at 8.30 p.m., the tables may be reserved for players who care to make up their own parties. This custom will henceforth prevail at these popular parties. As usual, Mr. Waller will have charge of the game, and a pleasant evening is anticipated.

The rooms are now open daily from 1 to 5.30 p.m. and more workers are needed to replace those who have fallen off.

The regular monthly meeting of the Branch will be held on Monday, January 20, at 8 p.m. This will also be the annual meeting and full reports of the year's work will be given. It is hoped that all members will make an effort to be present.

Victoria West Branch.

The Victoria West branch of the Red Cross Society held its monthly meeting on Monday last, when the treasurer reported the receipts for the month of December as $7.25.

The drawing for the gold bracelet, donated by Mrs. Beaven, Colville Road, and the reading lamp, donated by Mr. Wilson, Springfield Avenue, took place at the card social on Thursday evening. The winning number for the bracelet was $65, held by Mrs. Sampson, Blackwood Avenue, and No. 448 for the reading lamp, held by Miss Grimmon, Springfield Avenue.

The next card social will be held on Thursday, January 23, when a better attendance is anticipated by the committee.

Fernwood Branch.

The annual meeting of the Fernwood branch of the Red Cross will take place on Tuesday evening, January 14, at 8 o'clock in the work rooms, 1903 Gildstone Avenue. Mr. Williams, honorary secretary-treasurer of the Canadian Red Cross Society, will address the meeting, and it is earnestly hoped that a large number of the residents of the district will be present.

Cadboro Bay.

The monthly tea and business meeting was held on January 9, when it was decided to close the work room until February 4 on account of the epidemic. Messrs. Sturges, Peters and McGuire were asked to be the hostess for the tea on February 4. A donation from Mr. Cooper was received with thanks. Money sent in for the month amounted to $10.

IN FIELD FOR COUNCIL

TRUSTEE GEORGE F. WATSON
Who is in the field for Councillor in Ward III, Saanich.

The thinnest man in the world was arguing with the man of the mighty fist as to who was the greatest "draw" in the theatrical—or, rather, circus—world.

"See these fists? Why, the other day I took a brick in either hand, gave a squeeze, and—dust! Then I went through a forest, pulled up a tree with my right hand and one with my left, squeezed them together, and behold—sawdust!"

"Then," went on the man with the fists, desperately, "I went into a field, picked up a bull in either hand, squeezed 'em together, and, hey presto—beef tea!"

All Have Increased in Price Except Bread

if you want to save money--
begin using bakers' bread

EASILY seen, when you consider that the price of bread has not increased one iota in the last eighteen months, while fuel, shortening, milk, flour, substitutes, butter, or any article necessary in baking has steadily gone "skyward" in price. This is the direct result of the adoption and use of the most modern machinery in America with the resulting simultaneous production of thousands of loaves baked in the same time that it would ordinarily take the housewife to bake a batch of four. Watch the following advertisements showing the modern bakery at work. Quit baking—try bakers' bread to-day.

Order from Your Grocer.
Food License No. 5-1061.

SHELLY'S 4X BREAD

A man, who devotes as much of his life to one business as any housewife devotes to the business of home-making, is sure to read all he can on that subject—to try to keep in touch with every tendency and development in that line of work. To do this, in her business of home management, a woman must watch the advertisements all of the time—for they constitute "trade literature" for home-makers.

PUBLIC UTILITIES ACT AS DRAFTED

Would Set Up Commission of Three With Wide Powers

Draft copies of the proposed Public Utilities Act providing for the appointment of a public service commission for British Columbia have been completed and will take the form of a bill to be submitted to the Legislative Assembly during the approaching session. The short title is "The Public Utilities Act," providing for a board constituted of three members, to be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, with appointment also of sufficient clerical staff to handle business to be transacted. The three commissioners are to be appointed "during good behavior" for a term of ten years, and at the expiration of that term are eligible for re-appointment. They are to devote whole time to the commission's work, and their salary is to come from Consolidated Revenue. The salary to be provided is not yet included in the bill. The Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council reserves the power to direct places of residence for the commissioners, and in jurisdiction the board will have Supreme Court powers in many respects. All peace officers within the province are ex-officio officers to assist the commission in the exercise of its jurisdiction. Among other powers relegated to it, the commission may take possession and manage businesses in order to enforce its orders, and employees are compelled to obey the orders issued by the commission. Power for dissolution of companies in default, where no means of compelling compliance of companies with orders are at hand, is also provided. In such cases the board would file a certificate with the Attorney-General, proper publication would be given in the official B. C. Gazette, and the grounds for dissolution would have been complied with in law.

Power of Appeal

Right of appeal from commission rulings is provided, the appeal to be made to the judge of the Court of Appeal within twenty-one days of the ruling objected to.

Under the headings of duties devolving upon public utility companies relative to the commission, it is stipulated in the bill that they must provide service to the public in all respects adequate, safe, just, reasonable and without discrimination or delay. They would also have to obey all orders of the commission with respect to their business or service, and furnish all necessary information including the delivery of documents, keep records in this Province, etc., and do many other things to assist in carrying out the intentions of the act. The commission would control rates, service, the matter of interchange service between companies, and exercise a general supervision of all public utility company affairs. Penalty clauses of a rigorous character are set out.

MAP ROUTE FROM MOOSE JAW WEST

Seattle Makes Bid To Be Western Terminus of National Highway

While the Canadian Highway plans are still indefinite, there is plenty of evidence of a determination to get the matter before the Federal Government. Before this can be done the forces of every community must be united and fully prepared with their schemes. R. H. Atkinson, head of the Canadian Trail Association, was a recent visitor to Victoria from his headquarters at Moose Jaw and has been mapping out the best routes from Moose Jaw westward. Miles of good roads, which would later form part of the Canadian Highway, are already in existence, but it remains for the completion of the section through British Columbia to furnish one of the most beautiful scenic routes in the world, and at the same time complete the link necessary to this great national asset.

In Western Washington

Seattle is making a strong bid to become the western terminus of a National highway, and the State of Washington is planning to lay more hard surface roads as a definite part of the reconstruction and development programme. It is anticipated that from the enactment of a motor licence revenue bill increasing the automobile and truck tax, between $1,000,000 and $1,500,000 will be made available for permanent hard surfacing during the coming year, the idea being to raise the automobile revenues to an average of $15 a car. As an offset, however, it is calculated that an annual saving of $75 to $90 would be effected on each automobile on gasoline and tires alone. At the same time Washington State figures on issuing bonds for $30,000,000 to cover road construction, and it is figured that the $1,000,000 or more raised by the licence revenue would just equalize the interest on the bond issue.

NEEDED AT ONCE.

Mr. Parvenu-Smith was furnishing his library, which occupation was causing him considerable anxiety. In despair he called in an expert bookseller and after many suggestions and a final order for a complete library he turned to his adviser and asked: "And what is the name of that fellow who writes such a lot of Shakespearian something like that, isn't it?" "Shakespeare, sir," answered the tradesman. "Yes, that's it. Get me all he's written and make a note to order anything new he may write." Concealing a smile the bookseller suggested: "And may I suggest you have them bound in morocco?" "Bound in morocco?" roared the newly-made Baron. "No, certainly not. I want the confounded things at once!"—T. B. B.

The Roll of Honor of British women who have given up their lives that Britain might endure now numbers 550, and the list is by no means complete.

FORD'S WAR RECORD IS MOST AMAZING

Remarkable Contribution Made Toward Winning World's Conflict

Owners of Ford cars will be interested in the following accomplishments of the Ford Motor Car Company toward helping win the war. The concern has turned out:

- More than 2,000,000 steel helmets.
- Order for 5,000 12-cylinder Liberty motors. About 1,500 delivered.
- Order for 10,000 caissons. About 7,500 delivered.
- Order for 112 Eagle boats, 200 feet long and 25 feet beam; 50 delivered.
- More than 8,000 trucks.
- Order for 25,000 regular Ford cars.
- More than 12,000 ambulances.
- Order for 700,000 bearings for the Liberty motor. The superior standard of the bearings turned out by the Ford Motor Co. decided the Government to have this company make all the bearings for all the Liberty motors made in the United States. On this order over 400,000 bearings were delivered.
- About 60 tons of spare parts for Ford cars delivered.
- Order for 700,000 cylinder forgings for Liberty motors. Here again the Government recognized the superiority of Ford work and ordered Ford forgings for all Liberty motors made in America.
- Order for 400,000 cylinders for Liberty motors. Here again the Government ordered the Ford Motor Co. to make all cylinders for all the Liberty motors made in America. Order practically completed and new order for 300,000 was placed just prior to the armistice.

A large volume of experiment work was done in building 3-ton military tanks, and the Government placed orders for 15,000 of the small 2-men tanks and 3,000 of the large 6-ton tanks, and the huge building was almost completed in which the tanks were to be built. Cancellation order came before more than a half dozen tanks had been completed.

Motion picture reels in behalf of the Liberty loan, Red Cross and Patriotic Fund Work were made by the company and supplied to the Government in sufficient quantities to serve the entire United States in motion pictures. Motion picture reels in volume sufficient to serve the armies of the United States in France, Italy and Palestine, were furnished by the motion picture department of the Ford Motor Co.

Exactly 34,000 men and women were employed at the main factory in Highland Park; 6,000 men employed at the ship-building plant; 4,000 men employed at the blast furnace; 250 men employed at the carburetor plant, or an average of 45,000 employees, practically all on one hundred per cent. Government work, under a standard eight hour day and minimum wage of $5 per day.

The date of the first war contract executed between the United States and the Ford Motor Co. was Nov. 22, 1917.

Production before the war was confined to the Ford car, known to the trade as Model M. The entire efforts of the company were directed to the production of this one model chassis, upon which were mounted five distinct bodies, known to the trade as the runabout, seating two passengers; touring, seating five passengers; coupe, seating two passengers; Town car, seating six passengers; and the Sedan, seating five passengers. The last three are enclosed bodies, the first two are open with removable tops. The fiscal year ends July 31, annually, and for the fiscal year 1916-17 the volume of production reached 755,432 cars. For the year 1917-18, the production totalled 706,554 cars, but almost immediately after the end of the fiscal year, the plant did almost one hundred per cent.

The first work on Government contracts began in November, 1917. The number of men and women employed on war work totalled in excess of 30,000.

EXHIBITION OF ARTS AND CRAFTS MONDAY

Artists New to City Exhibit at Island Club's Annual Show

To-morrow the long-postponed Arts and Crafts exhibition annually held under the auspices of the Island Arts and Crafts Club will be opened to the public and will remain open for the remainder of the week. The exhibition was scheduled for October, but the intervention of the ban necessitated its postponement to the present date.

The collection is staged in the rooms on the third floor of the Pemberton Block, where the exhibition was held last year. While the actual number of exhibits is comparatively small, owing to the absence overseas of many former exhibitors, the general standard of the work is of a high order, and in a city which, in common with other western centres, lacks any public gallery, affords welcome opportunity for the indulgence of a love of the beautiful in art.

One of the most striking features of the exhibition is the excellent showing made by a number of artists new to Victoria. Of these the largest exhibit is that of R. B. Butler, who has sent in some seven or eight water-colours. Old Country residents of the city will revel in his sketches of quaint bits of England, including the corner of a Cotswold village, with its half-timbered and gabled cottages. By this same artist are two views of Victoria harbor, one called "Victoria's Park-shed," showing a very picturesque conception of what many would be an ugly theme—a view of the chemical works and factories on the waterfront. Broad in treatment, Mr. Butler's work is particularly pleasing in its softness of color and freedom from the hardness of line to which many water-color artists are prone.

The inevitable touch of war is imparted by the group of water-colors entitled, "Somewhere in France," by a returned soldier, Arthur H. Parker, of Cedar Hill. The theme is beautifully treated, and has none of the lurid effects which the title might suggest. Two of the little sketches show ruined churches whose graceful lines even the ruthless hand of the Hun has not altogether obliterated. Even a view of a war-scarred road with a laden motor-bus on its way to the lines has an element of beauty as portrayed by this soldier-artist.

Exhibiting for the first time in Victoria, Rev. W. G. Boyd has a number of clever water-colors showing marine views. Most of them are of local origin showing charming glimpses of sea, sky and mountain in the vicinity of Victoria.

Among the better-known local artists are T. Bamford, former president of the Arts and Crafts Club, who has lost none of his old-time skill, and is showing several delightful sea-scapes; Miss Jane Craze, whose sketches include one or two charming little bits in the vicinity of Vancouver; Miss Kitto, who shows several landscapes of "broom," and H. J. Davis, whose little marine sketches with their graceful, dancing craft are among the most pleasing of the collection.

Oil paintings are very much in the minority, only a few artists being represented. Of these particular mention must be made of the work of a young exhibitor, Miss Nora Southwell, who is showing several portraits. This artist's work is distinguished by its fine treatment, and in each case the subject is very soft and skillfully treated.

Of considerable historical interest is

TO ALL WOMEN WHO ARE ILL

This Woman Recommends
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Her Personal Experience.

McLean, Neb.—"I want to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all women who suffer from any functional disturbance, as it has done me more good than all the doctor's medicine. Since taking it, I have a fine healthy baby girl and have gained in health and strength. My husband and I both praise your medicine to all suffering women."

—Mrs. JOHN KOTTELMANN, R. No. 1, McLean, Nebraska.

This famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, has been restoring women of America to health for more than forty years and it will well pay any woman who suffers from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, backache, headaches, nervousness or "the blues" to give this successful remedy a trial.

For special suggestions in regard to your ailment write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its long experience is at your service.

A series of ten sketches by Lady Craze, showing Victoria in 1860 at the time when the Hudson's Bay Fort was in existence. These sketches were shown at the exhibition at London, England, in 1862.

Specimens of craft-work are few in number, but of interesting variety, and the exhibits embrace rug-weaving, clay-modelling, including a very virile figure of "Joy," by Mrs. L. S. Sweeney, several specimens of china-painting and art needlework. A comprehensive exhibit of handiwork by returned soldiers is also among the many features of interest in the collection.

BRITAIN'S OIL FIELDS

Can we provide our own oil? It is a vital question, one which the Government hopes to be able to answer in the affirmative. At present we have to rely almost entirely for supplies of oil from overseas.

Of the world resources of oil, the British Empire produces less than two and a half per cent. of which four-fifths comes to us from India.

We must find petroleum under British soil, and that is why Lord Cowdray, acting for the Government, is boring for oil in Derbyshire. It is considered by Lord Cowdray and his staff of experts that reservoirs of oil may be found, particularly in the neighborhood of Chesterfield, at a depth of between 2,000 feet and 4,000 feet. Operations are to be carried on night and day, the British engineers being assisted by United States drillers, who are to put down a number of wells. Millions of pounds will be saved to this country if the borings succeed.—Tit Bits.

THAT'S SO.

The world owes you a living, but it taken work to identify yourself as the fellow it's coming to.

STATEMENT SHOWS DETAILS OF SCHEME

Proposed Cemetery Considered in Light of Location and
Accessibility

Accessibility, perpetual care and conditions at the old cemetery are dealt with in the report of the Special Committee appointed to draft a statement for the public in view of the vote on the by-law next Thursday, to purchase the Tod property at Cedar Hill.

On Saturday The Times published the financial features, and the following are other phases of the situation in case of civic purchase:

Location of Property.

The land is situated directly adjoining Mount Douglas Park property on what is known as the Cedar Hill Road, about four miles from the City Hall.

Accessibility.

It is reached by way of Shelbourne Street, one of the finest paved avenues of the city, or suburbs. Though the street railway system has not been extended in this direction, there is no doubt, in any event, that if the cemetery were located where the Tod property now is a line of buses would be instituted to accommodate the passengers en route to the park, the beach and the cemetery.

Payment of Purchase.

The owners of the property have agreed to accept payment in 20-year serial bond debentures, bearing interest at five per cent. at par in lieu of cash.

Perpetual Care System.

It is the intention of the Council to establish at once the park perpetual care system, and to make provision for legacies and requests, to assist the fund which will be established by the city with the special object of securing the perpetual upkeep of all plots used for interment purposes. In the primary establishment of this fund, it is expected that the municipalities of Oak Bay, Saanich and Esquimalt will co-operate with the city, as indicated in a resolution to that effect passed at a meeting of the Special Joint Committee held on August 2, 1918. The title to the land will be vested in the Corporation of the City of Victoria.

General Features.

The land has been examined, tested and found admirably adapted for the purpose. It slopes to the east, and there is a natural channel for drainage to the sea. The three municipalities interested adjoining Victoria have indicated their concurrence in its selection. It will form the counter part of the park which it adjoins and the beach close by which has already become a popular resort for picnickers. With the park, beach and cemetery combined, these points will demand, and are certain to receive, proper and adequate attention from transportation companies.

Provision has been made for the annual expenditure of a considerable sum of money on the improvement of Mount Douglas Park and Beach, and if the cemetery is located adjacent thereto and maintained under the perpetual care system, it would form another feature in the continuous beautification of the locality.

Conditions at Cemetery.

While the old cemetery has not reached a condition where there are no more lots available, it is rapidly approaching it. Only a few more lots are left in the Anglican portion of the cemetery, and only a very limited number are available for purchase from the corporation. The medium priced lots are nearly all taken up, so that choice of selection is restricted to plots, the price of which, or the location of which, in a number of instances, may, or may not, be satisfactory. The caretaker of the Cemetery estimates that there will be sufficient plots available for purchase for another year, but not longer, under existing conditions. In any event not less than a year would be required suitably to prepare new ground for use as a cemetery.

IS CANDIDATE

JOSEPH PATRICK
OUR HERITAGE.

Oh, Women of the Nation,
Come, listen to my rhyme!
It's strange the changes brought about
By the whirligig of time.

For many years a name of scorn
We bore as suffragettes,
But when we raise our banner now,
A rousing cheer it gets.

For politicians crave our vote,
They greet us with a hand;
They tell us lovely stories,
While we listen, and—look bland.

The men! They used to laugh at us,
They thought us funny—quite!
Our laugh is last—but longest,
We're rising in our might.

We're rising in our might to-day,
We have a charge to keep;
We're tired of that old saying—
"Men work and women weep."

For the poet Kipling stated—
"A fact to make men quake!"
"That the female of the species
Is more deadly than the male."

These four long years have proved that we
Can rise to any height;
They cannot call us "clinging vines,"
Nor dub us—"parasite."

So, in this day of triumph,
"That truth shall be unfurled—
"The hand that rocks the cradle"
Shall help to "rule the world."

But let us be united
And agree to disagree—
For a busy world cares nothing
For—important you and me.

Oh Women! wake and hearken!
For a busy world cares nothing
May we have strength and courage
Our heritage to reap.

LOUISE SHRAPNEL KEITH,
Victoria, B. C., Nov. 20, 1918.

RATEPAYERS, BEWARE!

To the Editor.—We are all bound for the cemetery, but that does not justify us in reckoned by some of our worthy citizens. We have had a sufficient lesson in municipal extravagance to satisfy some of us for a few years, and unless we have a continuation of the influenza epidemic for the next ten years we will find ample accommodation for our remains in the present plot.

The public should be plainly told that our present cemetery is not more than half full, though more than half the space is sold.

CITIZEN.

THE FLU SCOURGE.

To the Editor.—Here are our city fathers breaking every rule that they themselves should be vigorously enforcing. We have this terrible flu scourge raging in our midst as never before. These men are holding meetings, which meetings are quite unnecessary for each candidate will, or can, have his views in the daily papers. To call all meetings off would be fair all round. It is hard to correctly size up how the people will vote, but I believe I can speak fairly accurately for 700 voters that will not vote for any candidate cruel enough to appear on a public platform. By calling off all none would lose a vote because their works are known already and the one that will make the first break will make the warmest friends.

A VOTER THAT HAS HAD THE FLU.
Victoria, January 10.

WANTS ALBION JOHNS

To the Editor.—The electors' lack of interest in municipal affairs is largely the cause of lack of performance on the part of their representatives. The elector who fails to do his or her duty by exercising the franchise on election day is courting a continuance of hapless methods, which are the natural result of indifference. This city is, and will continue to be, just what the citizens make it. Therefore, if we are to progress and profit during the period of reconstruction we must select from the candidates offering men of proved ability and foresight, who are alive to the need of developing home industry and who can be relied upon to advance and profect the community's interests as a whole.

This, then, is a time to remember the record of Mr. Albion Johns, who in 1917 saved for the citizens $39 per thousand on paving blocks used for repair work by buying blocks made in Victoria mills at $16 per thousand instead of paying $55 per thousand to Vancouver mills, as was being done when he came into office, also conserving the City Market from a public liability into a revenue-producing institution, are items many of which resulted in substantial savings for the citizens at large and insured the development of Victoria industries. Such is constructive thinking, which, together with co-operative action, is the need of the time and the only sure way to a safe period of reconstruction.

Heart Fluttering

Easily Corrected

GOOD ADVICE TO FOLKS BOTH-
ERED WITH PALPITATION, WEAKNESS, ETC.

If your heart flutters, be careful. An attack is liable to come on at any time. Excitement, over-exertion or emotion may cause it.

If blood rushes to the head, if palpitation and short breath are noticeable, there's cause for alarm.

If you want a good honest remedy try Ferrozone. We recommend Ferrozone because we know it's just right for heart trouble. It cured A. P. Beattie, who lives at Allen Hotel, Bay City, Mich. See if your symptoms resemble these:

Some Symptoms of Weak Heart,
Nervousness,
Palpitation,
Trembling,
Dizziness,
Sinking Feeling,
Heart Beats,
Short Breath,
Weakness.

Mr. Beattie says:
"I was weak and miserable. I was subject to heart palpitation and dizziness."

"As I grew worse I began to have trembling and sinking sensations. Ferrozone strengthened my heart, gave vigor to my nerves, soon made me well. It's a great restful."

By strengthening the muscles of the heart, giving proper circulation and causing a general rebuilding of the whole system, Ferrozone is bound to do grand work in heart trouble; try it, five, ten, or six for $2.50, at all dealers, or direct by mail from The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

CANDIDATES SPEAK TO SMALL AUDIENCE

Thirteen Aspirants for Civic Honors Address Twenty People

To an audience of twenty, half of them women, thirteen candidates for civic honors addressed their remarks at the North Ward School, Douglas Street, on Saturday night.

Alderman Porter stated that if elected he would do everything possible to develop the port of Victoria. He would see to it that the outer docks, in the construction of which millions had been spent, were provided with proper facilities for handling shipping and that a proper car-ferry service between the docks and rail terminals on the old Songhees Reserve would be inaugurated.

The city had also spent millions on the improvement of roads, out of which they were getting no return, as the Province was collecting the license fees. Alderman Porter was strongly in favor of inducing the Province to transfer to the city some of the revenues that were justly due to the city. If a memorial were to be presented to the memory of the Victorians who had died in the war, Alderman Porter thought it should take the form of an up-to-date hospital. He would, if elected, see that the Sunday observance regulations were properly carried out, and again reminded his hearers that the city was in a good state financially, due largely to the watchfulness of the Finance Committee, of which he was a member.

Free-Port Area.
Mayor Todd stated that he would strongly urge the establishment of a free port area as part of the programme of development which he has recently been advocating. He said that Alderman Porter had criticized his attitude respecting the amalgamation scheme with Esquimalt on the grounds that it included the purchase of the Esquimalt Waterworks, but it would be quite possible to carry out the idea, he thought, without buying the waterworks.

As Alderman Porter had attacked him by saying that the Mayor's office was the most expensive in the City Hall, the following figures showing total expense of the Mayor's office during the past five years were given: 1914, $5,025; 1915, $4,012; 1916, $4,023; 1917, $4,988, and 1918, $3,297. In 1917 he held the expenses down to the lowest figure in five years and 1918 expenses were nearly as low. The Mayor said it was impossible to understand, therefore, how Alderman Porter could have made the charge he did. He also claimed that insubordination had warranted the dismissal of three city officials last spring, and that Mr. Rust's subsequent resignation as City Engineer was due to the fact that he had been offered a much better position elsewhere. It was different in the case of Chief Davis's case, however, and it was an unfortunate thing that the latter had been treated in a manner which resulted in his resigning.

Other Speakers.
Alderman Fullerton, Mrs. Mary Graves, ex-Sergeant R. E. Ault, ex-Alderman John and Joseph Patrick were among the aldermanic candidates who spoke in similar lines to those used to the small audience at the High School on Friday night, together with Mrs. Richards, candidate for School Trustee, and Alderman Alex. Peden, candidate for Police Commissioner.

Alderman Walker and Alderman Dinsdale made their first speeches in the campaign on Saturday night, and each referred to the records of the committees on which they served during the past year as a reason why they should be re-elected.

Mrs. Thomas Palmer made a strong plea for election to the Council as a representative of the needs of women, and to help look after the interests of returned soldiers and soldiers' dependents.

W. N. Mitchell said the people of Victoria had been dissatisfied for the past five years with the way the law had been enforced and if elected to the position of Police Commissioner he would see to it that conditions were changed.

John W. Bolden announced that he was a candidate for School Trustee. He was a strong supporter of technical training, he stated.

After a canvass of some two hundred local merchants, members of the Retail Clerks' International Protective Association, and other citizens supporting the cause of Saturday closing, a campaign committee, state that 150 favored a change in the present half-holiday system. The strongest opposition came from the butchers, owing to complications with the City Market, as a result of judicial decision, under which meat vendors remain open, irrespective of store hours.

The Association is pursuing simultaneously a vigorous campaign for compulsory six o'clock closing, owing to infractions by many Oriental storekeepers.

A dainty Belgian countess who objects to being made a pawn of state and sold in marriage to a dissolute German prince is the captivating role essayed by Marguerite Clark in her newest Paramount photoplay, "Out of a Clear Sky," which will be shown at the Royal Victoria Theatre commencing Monday.
Miss Clark's picture is an adaptation by Charles Maigne from "Out of a Clear Sky," a novel written by Maria Thompson Davies, in which the principal character is Celeste, the tiny but stately Countess of Bersek and Krymn. Her scheming uncle demands that she offer herself as a pawn of state, in order that his relations with Germany might be improved. Celeste refuses to agree to a marriage with a German prince and escapes with her governess to America. Her uncle follows her abroad, however, but when the ship docks she eludes him and catches a train for the South, hiding in a Tennessee mountain gorge. There she is

COLUMBIA PRESENTS STORY OF LONE GIRL

Alice Joyce Appears in "The Fettered Woman" This Week

Branded a jail bird, shunned by her former friends and pointed at by children whom she loves, a young woman of high character and refinement and innocent of any thought of wrongdoing, is forced to refuse the love of the man who has sought her out in her native village. "The Fettered Woman" tells the story of this woman in a fascinating manner in that widely read novel "Annie's Bride," by Robert W. Chambers. Its picturization has lost none of its strength and appeal and this Greater Vitagraph Blue Ribbon Feature will be the attraction in the Columbia for three days beginning to-day.

Alice Joyce, Vitagraph's talented and versatile star, has the leading part that of the young woman, and she is supported by Webster Campbell, one of the best known juveniles in photoplay, and Donald McBride, Lionel Grey and Templar Saxe.

The picture is tense throughout, with human interest and there are many gripping scenes, as when the girl just robbed by death of her father and the victim of a plot to rob her of her inheritance, is sent to prison on perjured testimony, following a shooting affray in a café. The young man who loves her is convinced she is innocent and investigating the case brings about her vindication and wins her as his wife.

FEATURE AT ROMANO "TRAIL TO YESTERDAY"

Strong Western Picture With Bert Lytell as Star: "Hands Up"

Who among us would take "the trail to yesterday" if he could? Where would it lead—to joy, sorrow, aching regret or deathless memories? If the truth were confessed many would like to go by two, hand in hand, back to life's sunrise time.
Bert Lytell, as the star in the Metro screen drama to be seen at the Romano, commencing to-day, takes this trail. He plays the part of a wealthy youth who for dramatic reasons goes West and becomes a cowpuncher. Romance, peril, treachery and loyalty all lie in wait for him and there is a series of absorbing adventures in "The Trail to Yesterday."
This gripping photoplay has wonderful scenes showing the Grand Canyon of the Colorado and Arizona cattle ranch. As Ned Keegles, who later becomes known simply as "Dakota," the cowboy, Mr. Lytell has ample scope for his athletic abilities. Beautiful Anna Q. Nilsson plays Sheila, the girl of his heart.

A storm brings "Dakota" and a girl together in a lonely cabin. When he learns that she is daughter of the man who killed his father, "Dakota" forces a preacher, who also sought shelter, to marry the girl to him. Revenge has taken possession of the heart of the outlaw, but fate steps in and compels him to aid the girl for whom he determined to make life miserable. A spark of love is kindled which results in happiness for the outlaw and the girl.

Another thrilling episode of the Pathe serial, "Hands Up," starring bewitching Ruth Roland, will be shown on the new bill at the Romano.

The reason Vinol was so successful in Mrs. Goodwin's case is because it contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, the very elements needed to build up a weak, run-down system and create strength.

ROYAL DRAGOONS HEADLINER OF BILL

Pantages Theatre Has Vaudeville With Plenty of Variety

The programme of band and song numbers given by the Ten Royal Dragoons as the headline attraction on the bill of Pantages vaudeville which was shown for the first time at the matinee performance this afternoon, leaves little to be desired. This aggregation of musicians and vocalists are each expert artists and as soloists of the cornet, clarinet, piccolo and trombone or drums give the act a strong appeal. Their rendition of "The Boys of the Old Brigade" is said to have the value of an extraordinary musical offering.

The next-to-headline feature is a farcical sketch offered by Walter Fisher and company called "Baby Bugs." This is a decided novelty in the way of its construction and keeps the audiences in convulsions of laughter from first to last of its period on the stage, as one absurd situation after another comes to the fore. Shirli Rives and Billy Arnold are another feature pair introducing an original skit containing a lot of good, snappy humor under the title of "A Big Sale." They make good use of the opportunity to get off some clever sayings and sing catchy songs.

One of the spectacular attractions on the bill is the sensational performance of Samoya, a "Spaniard" who is introducing a new sort of acrobatic feat to audiences of this continent. He gives the smoothness and grace of the European acrobat to a remarkable aerial swinging turn high above the stage. The Misses Durkin give the charm of beauty, gaiety and youth to their repertoire of songs and musical numbers. Their winsome appearance and their ability as entertainers make a most satisfying combination. Sargent and Lewis are singers and instrumentalists who render many tuneful songs to the accompaniment of the guitar and ukulele.

To complete the good bill is the showing of the seventh chapter of "A Fight for Millions," by far the most exciting episode yet shown of this popular serial picture.

METRO OFFERING

OCCUPIES VARIETY

Famous Dolly Sisters: Allies' Official Review of the War

"The Million Dollar Dollies!" The very title suggests luxury, daintiness, refinement, fascination. All of these are realized in this Metro screen production of luxe which will be seen at the Variety all this week, commencing to-day. And when one discovers that the "Dollies" in question are the famous Dolly Sisters, Roszika and Yancsi, Broadway's celebrated dancers, "the plot thickens."

The charm of these clever girls permeates the entire production. Oriental splendor in keeping with the brilliant talents of the Dolly Sisters. It reads like a chapter from the Arabian Nights and deals with a Rajah and a Maharaajah, an Indian palace and other exciting things. The Dollies swim, dance and otherwise disport themselves daintily in beautiful and glittering apparel. And there is a love story.

Roszika and Yancsi impersonate themselves in this five-act succession of magic, and naturally no one could improve on that. They are surrounded by a capable cast in production of excitement and charm.

The Sisters Dolly, Roszika and Yancsi, each wear forty-eight complete changes of costume in the course of the action of this romance fantasy. Nearly all of the forty-eight gowns worn by Yancsi are exactly like those worn by Roszika. However, in some scenes their attire is different. Roszika, for example, dresses as a fish in one scene and the gown is a sensation. Women will find this picture a fashion review and the men will also find the many gowns attractive to gaze upon.

The Minister of Lands of British Columbia announced last week that the Provincial Government had taken over some 22,000 acres of land for returned soldiers.

ARTCRAFT SPECIAL FILMED AT DOMINION

Special Star Cast in "The Hun Within" All This Week

Dorothy Gish, the charming D. W. Griffith actress has a splendid role in "The Hun Within," the superb new special Paramount-Artcraft production which will be displayed at the Dominion Theatre next week. Miss Gish, who is recognized as one of the most talented screen players in the country, is seen in this great photoplay as a patriotic American girl who risks her life to foil the dark plots of German spies who are seeking to destroy transports conveying American troops to France.

Miss Gish went to France and England with Mr. Griffith and his producing force some time ago and she with her sister Lillian, a prominent Griffith star, has an important role in "Hearts of the World" which is now being shown with immense success in New York. It is said that in "The Hun Within" Miss Gish's role is equally strong and since the story of the picture deals with a subject in which all patriotic American citizens are interested, it has exceptional appeal.

Miss Gish plays the part of a patriotic American girl whose love affair is interrupted by Hun spies who seek to destroy American transports bound for France with troops. She foils this plot in an ingenious way, but not until after she has had gruelling experiences, all of which are calculated to keep the attention of the audience at high tension. The activities of United States Secret Service operatives in dealing with the Hun spy menace are graphically shown in this photoplay.

Prominent screen players portray the various roles. Those who enjoy a good laugh will find in the new Sunshine comedy, "Roaring Lions and Wedding Bells," one of the biggest laughing sensations of the season. Abounding in riotous fun. No one should miss it.

The Natural History Society will hold the regular meeting on Monday, January 13th, at 8 p.m., at the School Board Room, City Hall.

PANTOMIME CHARMS ENTHUSIASTIC HOUSE

Red Cross Fairy Play at Princess Theatre an Instant Success

All the old familiar characters of nursery rhyme fame, with several products of more modern times including the ubiquitous Charlie Chaplin and that estimable lady beloved of Drury Lane audiences—the Widow Twankey—blend their tuneful way through the mazes of the pantomime, "The Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe," which delighted a big first night audience at the Princess Theatre on Saturday evening.

Evolved from the fertile brain of Reginald N. Hincks, the play bears all the hallmarks of the pantomime par excellence, and has the happy feature of being equally attractive to children and grown-ups. The plot centres round the Widow Twankey, whose home is in a tattered shoe of Broddingnagian proportions, her son Jack and her supposed daughter, Kiddie, and the story is sufficiently elastic to permit the introduction of sparkling patter, very tuneful songs and captivating dances, with an abundance of clever allusion to recent "Tallac" Government jobs, the epidemic, and other features of topical interest.

The Widow Twankey Amusement galore is created by the Widow Twankey, portrayed by Mr. Hincks in inimitable fashion. True to type she was of the bibulous appearance associated with pantomime "dames," while her dress, including the huge watch suspended from a red flannel band encircling her ankle, to the fan composed of slipper insoles aroused a continuous stream of merriment. As with all this talented actor's performances, some of the most delicious bits of comedy were furnished by his side-play.

Miss Denise Harris made a welcome re-appearance in the Red Cross Company, giving a very charming performance as "Jackie," singing several tuneful numbers very pleasingly and comporting herself with the grace and gallantry demanded of principal boys.

PANTAGESCOPE Seventh Episode "A FIGHT FOR MILLIONS"

As the long lost daughter of Old King Cole, Miss Eva Hart had abundant opportunity for the display of those talents which have endeared her to the hearts of Victoria audiences, dancing and singing with a daintiness and charm which won for her oft-repeated applause.

Topical Allusions

Mr. Bennett, a new-comer to the Company, as Baron Flumery, Capt. Craddock as Lord Ladysmith, and J. Petch as Count Comox formed a trio of conspirators who, with the Widow Twankey, sang some of the most breezy songs of the evening, two numbers in particular, "Bathing on the Brentwood Beach" and "My Friend John Did the Same as Me" fairly bristling with local and topical allusions. In his part as the Wizard of Woz, A. M. D. Fairbairn gave a finished and clever performance, and in the first act revealed his versatility in a very graceful dance. As Charles Chaplin, Oswald Barton indulged in all the antics associated with that million-dollar comedian, and later assumed the garb of Old King Cole of the kingdom of Carbonifer. "Little Boy Blue" gained tremendously in stature as played by Brian Drake, and his pathetic adventures with his horn and, later, with a pump-atmosphere and pall of disinfectant, created much amusement.

A bevy of pretty girls, including the Misses Hunt, Roscher, P. Roscher, Peterson, Carne, Foote, Monkley, Neany, Belsion, Cox, Hodgins, Harvey, Smith, Rider, Butler and M. Butler, Betty Newton, Phoebe Hogan, Dorothy Hogan, Naomi Taylor, Marguerite Sanderson and Agnes Gury, danced and sang with charming effect in the chorus. In the first scene their quaint "Kate Greenaway" costumes formed an exceptionally pretty background. The male chorus included Messrs. Williams, Redman, Price, Wilders, Foster, Miller, Brown and Base.

Captivating Chorus

The pantomime is replete with dance numbers, the gracefulponents of the Tersipheorean art including Misses Caworth, who gave a graceful pastiche with Mr. Fairbairn as the faun, and a "Dance of the Nymphs" with Miss Ruth McBride as partner. A very dainty "Dance of the Nymphs" was executed with youthful grace and abandon by a group of young girls including the Misses Betty Gray, Dola Dunsmuir, Ruth McBride, Anna McBride, Molly Hibben, Mary Phillips, Kathleen Wollam Palmer, Elsie Taylor, and Marion Bullock-Webster.

Much of the charm of the pantomime lies in its music, which, as rendered by the orchestra, under the leadership of Mrs. Gertrude Huntley Green and conducted by Frank Sehl, sets the audience attune and sends them home humming the lilt of the airs. Among the songs which attained instant popularity were "If You and I," a charming duet by Miss Eva Hart and Miss Denise Harris, "The Regiment of Frocks and Frills," and "My Heart is Calling You," sung by Miss Eva Hart, and "I Can't Say Who Told Me" by R. N. Hincks. The pantomime will run for another nine nights and one matinee, and it is safe to predict that crowded houses will greet every performance of this latest success of the Red Cross Company.

FAMOUS ACTOR

MANAGER PASSES

Sir Charles Wyndham, Associated With Celebrated Comedy Revivals, Dies in London

London, Jan. 12.—Sir Charles Wyndham, the actor, died in London this morning. For Fifty Years.

Sir Charles Wyndham, through his visits to America, covering a period of fifty years, was almost as well known to the theatregoers in this country as he was in his native England. He was a prime favorite of the English stage and had met with some success on the European continent.

Probably few of those who remarked upon his military bearing on the stage, standing as he did above six feet in height, straight and slim as a sapling, realized that the noted actor began his acquaintance with the Americans as a surgeon in the Federal army during the Civil War.

Born in Liverpool in 1857, Charles Wyndham was the son of a prominent physician. His parents intended him for the church, and there was great consternation in the family when he displayed his predilections for the life of an actor. To appease his father he agreed to study medicine, and about coincident with the time of receiving his degree he married Emma Silberead, the granddaughter of a German Baron. During his early years he had found his way to give vent to his theatrical desires in numerous amateur performances. In 1882, just at his majority, he made his first professional appearance at the old Royalty Theatre in London as Christopher Carnation in "Carnation of Carnation Cottage." This was under the management of Madame de Rhona, when the company included Ellen Terry, W. H. Kendal and David James.

In Civil War.

"Going on the stage meant going to the dogs then, in the eyes of the majority of people," said the actor in later life when he recalled the protests of his family against his stage career. The Civil War in America proved to be his way out. He imagined himself to be the champion of the great cause of abolition, he said, but as he reviewed the case later it was irritation shown against his predilection for the stage that drove him to America, believing he would find it easier to see an opening in the dramatic profession, and that he could follow the calling without the social and parental opposition that he had to struggle against in his native country.

He found the war of absorbing interest in America, however, and postponed his theatrical ventures in favor of service as an army surgeon. In this capacity he was present at the engagements of Chancellorsville, Fredericksburg and Gettysburg, besides serving all through the Red River campaign under General Banks.

On quitting the army he returned to New York, where on the opening night under Mrs. John Woods's management at the Olympic Theatre, October 8, 1863, he played in "Brother and Sister." He was not considered a striking success.

His Theatrical Career.

Two years later he was back in England, and soon afterward appeared with Henry Irving and Ellen Terry in numerous plays.

When he reappeared in New York at Wallacks Theatre in 1869 he readily established a reputation as a light comedian and organized a touring company of his own which covered all the cities in the United States.

The repertoire of his whole stage career would fill a column of fine print. The "School for Scandal," in which he appeared as Charles Surface, was one play which remained a trump card for many years. "Pink Dominoes," which he produced in 1877, was a piece which ran for over 500 nights. Revivals of "Wild Oats" and "David Garrick" were conspicuous successes on both sides of the Atlantic. For twenty years he successfully managed the Criterion Theatre in London and he was also proprietor of Wyndham's Theatre and the New Theatre which produced one success after another.

"The Mollies," the comedy by Herbert Davies, was one of the last of his popular productions. Sir Charles was a favorite in fashionable society off as well as on the stage. The late King Edward bestowed a knighthood upon him at the time of the Coronation in 1902.

He married, after his first wife's death, in 1916, Mary Moore, long his leading lady, widow of James Albery, the dramatist.

FIRE PROTECTION COMMITTEE DEALT WITH AERIAL PLAN

Business Session at Parliament
Buildings Terminated Saturday Afternoon

Many subjects of vital import to the work of Forest Protection in British Columbia were discussed at the final business session of the Forest Protection Committee which met at the Parliament Buildings on Friday last, and continued its sessions until Saturday afternoon. There were present representatives nominated by the lumbermen, timber owners and loggers of the Province and representatives of the Department of Lands in charge of forestry administration.

Among others in attendance were G. R. Naden, Deputy Minister of Lands (chairman); E. J. Palmer, of the Victoria Lumber Manufacturing Company; C. McNab, of the Baker Lumber Company; Waino, M. D. Rector, International Lumber Company; Neale Murray, Arrow Lakes Lumber Company, Kamloops; M. A. Grainger, Chief Forester; and P. Z. Crayhill, Forester, (secretary).

Cost Less in 1918.—A statement submitted to the meeting showed that the Forest Protection Fund was in a satisfactory financial position. It was also disclosed that during the year 1918 some 856 fires had occurred, and that the cost of fighting them had tapped the treasury to the extent of $46,999. There is a considerable improvement here over the year 1917 when, with conditions very little worse, $89,000 was the sum involved in fire fighting costs. The total expenditure for the year for all purposes amounted to $227,000 and the revenue was expected to exceed this figure by a substantial margin.

Two subjects of very considerable importance were the questions of the disposal of the accumulation of old slash—which creates a great deal of fire hazard in many sections of the Province each summer—and the proper system of dealing with the fresh slash which each logging operation creates. Plans were also laid by the Committee for a systematic burning campaign.

Patrol by Air.

Other subjects dealt with included the question of enforcing precautions against fire where donkey engines are used in the woods, road slash, railway slash and railway patrol. Dangers arising out of the opening of the shooting season in the early fall, and the best means of countering damage from camp fires, was also subject for treatment by the Committee, as well as the seeding up of burnt areas, the use of gasoline pumps in fighting forest fires and the all important topic of forest patrol by means of an aerial service.

In this latter connection Captain L. R. Andrews was released from military duty in time to be present, and in view of his varied service with the Royal Air Force he was able to give the meeting the benefit of ripe experience as well as to testify as to the feasibility of aeroplane patrol for the forests of British Columbia. Captain Andrews spent a good deal of time with the Air Force on the Salonic front, and latterly has been on duty in Canada as an instructor with the rank of Squadron Commander.

COLES IS AGAIN REEVE OF ESQUIMALT

Ward nominations were as follows:

For Reeve, Arthur Coles, elected unopposed.

For Council, Ward One (two to be elected):

FOOTPADS ATTEMPT TO HOLD UP MOTOR

Epidemic Continued Last Night; One Gang Responsible, Say Police

The epidemic of hold-ups continued in this city last night when armed bandits attempted unsuccessfully to stop an automobile driven by H. H. Brown at the corner of Richmond Road and Maple Street. Taking the chance of being fired at, Mr. Brown forced his car to shoot ahead, and he was away from the scene before the footpads could molest him.

Behind Telephone Pole
Shortly after midnight Mr. Brown was endeavoring to turn his car about in the triangle formed at the corner of Maple Street, Richmond Road and Fort Street, and he was about to proceed towards town on Fort Street when suddenly two rough looking men sprang out from behind a telephone pole. One of them, who had a revolver in his hand, cried, "hold that car!"

"Nothing of the kind!" replied the driver, speeding up his motor and ducking to avoid the bullets which he expected.

After leaving the bandits, Mr. Brown met Constable Nesbitt of the Oak Bay police, and with another man they toured the district for some time. No trace was found of the footpads, but an army sergeant they met at Oak Bay Junction, stated that he had seen men answering their description going down Yates Street.

Mr. Brown describes the men as both young, and about five feet seven or eight in height. The bandit who flourished the revolver was dressed in a three-quarter length gray tuxedo overcoat with the collar turned up, and wore a light cap well pulled down over his eyes. The other was dressed in a shabby blue suit and he, too, wore a light cap.

One Gang Responsible
The police are now convinced that the recent hold-ups are all the work of one gang of bandits who, so far have experienced small success. Their selection of victims, it is pointed out, does not seem to indicate a professional skill but, on the other hand, the way they searched Mr. Cox on Friday night appears to reflect a thorough knowledge of the game. Some of the police are inclined to think that the gang is composed of young and inexperienced men and not of professionals, while others are of the opinion that they are thugs who have slipped through the hands of the Terminal City authorities and come here to continue their depredations. The confusion in the various descriptions of the bandits makes investigation by the police extremely difficult, for the accounts on every occasion have conflicted. The utmost, however, is being done to apprehend the criminals.

SHOULD MITIGATE DUST NUISANCE

City Electrician Recommends
Alterations in Garbage Service; His Suggestions

Serious consideration should be given to abate the nuisance from dust at the City Wharf, Telegraph Street, according to City Electrician M. Hutchison, in his annual report filed to-day. There are loaded the garbage scows to dump material at sea. Owing to the difficulty of maintaining the electrical equipment in proper condition, Mr. Hutchison recommends that a system of water spray pipes should be installed at the collecting stations, and that suitable housing be provided at the garbage wharf for enclosing scows while materials are being dumped. By this means the clouds of dust would be confined to the enclosure, and he recommends that steps should be taken to improve conditions.

He recommends for the department: 1. Provision in the estimates for the cost of arranging circuits and the construction of an additional power supply circuit to relieve the over-loaded condition of lines supplying the northeast section of the city, and to provide a margin of capacity for additional street lamps. 2. That the congested condition of the main pole lead extending from the Lighting Station along Herald Street be remedied by installing underground cables in the system of conduits which were constructed for this purpose. 3. That some form of light auto truck be purchased for use in connection with work of line construction and repairs. 4. That another effort be made to dispose of all idle plant now in position in the lighting station and create space which can be of good service.

He reports there are 839 arc lamps, 1,009 cluster light standards in service. The arc system operated 3,742 hours last year, and consumed power costing $14,214, and the cluster lighting system consumed electric power costing $6,170. He points out that as the cluster light area, were it not on a light improvement plan, would have been lighted at a cost of $3,900, the actual cost of the city's contribution to current is $3,170, as the total cost of current for the cluster service is $6,170 per annum.

$416 A MINUTE.
New York, Jan. 12.—Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, is to receive slightly more than $416 a minute for his coming eight-round bout with Johnny Dundee, his Italian challenger. It is said Leonard has been guaranteed $10,000, with a privilege of accepting a percentage of the receipts. For the twenty-four minutes of actual boxing which the eight rounds will produce, this sum averages a fraction more than $416.

Regarding Alsace-Lorraine.—In order that they may be placed in communication with friends or relatives or that they may be interrogated in regard to their desire to return to their native land now that it is under French control the French Government is anxious to get into touch with all ex-patriated nationals of Alsace or Lorraine who are at present residing in British Columbia. Further information will be furnished by A. O. P. Francis, of the French Consular Service.

DEAD OR ALIVE?

By your Vote on the Weekly Half-Holiday Referendum you will decide whether Victoria shall be a Dead or a Live City. Whether the Best Business Day in the week shall find our Stores Closed, our Streets Deserted and the Trade of Victoria driven into the hands of competitive cities.

WHETHER VICTORIA BY THE CLOSING OF ITS STORES ON SATURDAY SHALL ENDANGER ITS COMMERCIAL PROSPERITY—FORM A DRAG ON MUNICIPAL FINANCE—AND MAKE THE CITY THE LAUGHING STOCK OF THE PACIFIC COAST. EVERY CITIZEN WHO REMEMBERS VICTORIA DURING THE PERIOD OF ENFORCED SATURDAY CLOSING CAN HAVE NO

ILLUSION AS TO THE EFFECT THIS HAD IN THE COMPLETE UPSET OF HOUSEHOLD CONVENIENCE—THE MERCHANTS THEMSELVES HAVE HEAVY LOSSES BY WHICH TO JUDGE THE MATTER. EVERY VOTE CAST FOR SATURDAY CLOSING IS A BLOW AT THE RETURNED SOLDIERS' CHANCES OF REINSTATEMENT IN CIVIL LIFE BECAUSE IT DESTROYS BUSINESS AND CLOSES AVENUES FOR EMPLOYMENT.

The whole civilized world is today emerging from the suffering and wreckage resulting from an orgy of bloodshed and destruction—homes, industries, human life, have been common sport for the lust and fury of battle. For many years the future will be a stern lesson of sacrifice—activity—reconstruction, rather than relaxation of effort; of support and care for the men and their dependents who have sacrificed their all in defence of the Empire. This involves serious responsibilities, of which Victoria must bear her share; our ability to do this depend upon the measure of our trade stability and success, and increases the responsibility of any action which will interfere with our ability to care for these war-worn heroes and their dependents.

SCIENTIFIC SEQUEL OF RECENT EARTHQUAKE

Earthquakes leave many strange results in their wake, and not the least interesting are those which expose some new phase of nature. The earthquake here on December 6 has exposed to view at Roberts Bay, near Sidney, a number of oil showings in fissures. The location is that where oil is reported to have been found a number of years ago. Incidentally it may be said that they are rather favorably reported upon by a Californian expert. Like every other mineral product, there have been optimists ready to prophesy its presence in the neighborhood of this city, although the reports of the geologists is distinctly unfavorable. A well was opened by the Western Canadian Oil Prospecting Co. at Muir Creek, in the Sooke district, some years ago, but the results were not encouraging. Again, about four years ago the issuance of oil and petroleum licences in the neighborhood of Cedar Hill raised something of a flurry in the district, but the excitement died out as speedily as it came into being.

The romance of striking oil is just as fascinating as it was in the days of the "Golden Butterfly," but the discovery is interesting more as a scientific phenomenon than of any practical economic importance so far as can be judged at the present time. Tested by the examination made by Charles H. Clapp in his excellent report on the Victoria and Saanich Map Area, the folded sandstones and shales of the northern end of the peninsula are such as would be expected to give promise of conditions associated with the recent discovery.

WILL TRY TO HEAL RIFT IN THE LUTE

Factions Now Differing in Civil Service Association Will Meet

During the next forty-eight hours the Victoria branch of the Provincial Civil Service Association will meet for the purpose of discovering a way of repairing the rift in the lute occasioned by the officially expressed "feeling of exclusion" experienced by the Deputy Ministers, Heads of Departments, and Technical Officers, reference to which was made in these columns on Saturday.

It is the intention of the members of the Association to discuss the whole matter with the Deputies, Heads and technical men dealing particularly with the affiliation clause and the rejected amendment which sought to include the discussion of strikes in the number of subjects prohibited. Officials of the newly constituted body are of the opinion that the present attitude of aloofness may be smoothed down and an understanding reached in time to start the activities of the Association with everybody possessed of but one single thought.

In the meantime the process of organizing units throughout the Province is proceeding with alacrity. Vancouver is already in working order with Nelson and New Westminster nearly complete with the essentials. As soon as all units are in readiness the work of federation will be commenced and the Provincial-wide machinery set in motion to carry out the aims and objects of the Association.

It is the intention of the British Government to make the Imperial War Museum a record as complete as is humanly possible of the way in which England did her part in winning the war.

SOPHIA VICTIM WAS BURIED YESTERDAY

Impressive Scenes at Funeral of Late Mrs. Davies; Salvation Army

Impressive scenes marked the consignment to their last resting place the remains of Mrs. Davies, one of the victims of the wreck of the steamship Sophia, whose body was found a short time ago, and for whom funeral services were held yesterday. The service was held at the Salvation Army Citadel, the late Mrs. Davies having at one time been an officer in the Army. The hall was packed with sorrowing friends and former comrades of the deceased, who had assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to her memory. The Army band was in attendance and the hymns sung were "Servant of God, Well Done," "Sleep on Beloved," "Rock of Ages," and "Shall We Gather?"

Commandant Jaynes gave the brief address. The cortege to the grave included all the members of the local corps, the women wearing white mourning sashes and the men white armbands, the Army band playing the Dead March in Saul. Members of Purple Star, L. O. B. A., were also present at the obsequies. Particularly beautiful were the floral tributes which hid the casket.

The honorary pallbearers were the following Past Mistresses of Victoria Purple Star Lodge: Mesdames Doane, Martin and Laurinon, and the following members of the Salvation Army: Mrs. Thos. Wood, Mrs. Jaynes and Miss Dolly Wiles, while the active bearers were W. Haughton, N. Hicks, E. Ealing, of the Salvation Army, and Messrs. Collin, Walker and D. M. King, of the L. O. B. A. At the graveside the Salvation Army rites were conducted by Commandant Jaynes.

WELL-KNOWN NATIVE DAUGHTER PASSES

Miss Emma Gonnason Died To-day; Was Energetic in Patriotic Causes

The death occurred yesterday at six p.m. at the family residence, 668 Dallas Road, of Miss Emma Gonnason, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gonnason. She was born in this city in December, 1885, and received her early education at the North Ward School, going from there to St. Ann's Academy where she graduated, and later taking a two-year course at McGill University.

As the Secretary of the Daughters of Pitt and a very valued member of the Florence Nightingale Chapter of the I.O.D.E. from the early stages of the war to her death the late Miss Gonnason has been foremost in all work for the benefit of returned soldiers, as well as those of active service. She was a hard working member of the James Bay Branch of the Red Cross for the past four years, and was ever ready to welcome the returned men on their arrival and to drive them to Esquimalt or wherever their destination. She leaves to mourn her loss her father and mother and two sisters all of this city. Her death will be a great shock to a large circle of friends to whom she had endeared herself by her happy and cheerful disposition, and by her untiring effort in whatever she undertook to do.

The funeral will be held from the residence tomorrow at 2.30 p.m., the Rev. A. deB. Owen officiating.

County Court Resumes.—The sitting of the County Court will be resumed to-morrow. Judge Lampan has recovered sufficiently from his recent illness to be able to occupy his position on the bench again.

$50 Reward

It has come to my attention that, in connection with the "Tod" Cemetery Purchase By-Law, an untrue rumor (taking advantage of the similarity of the names "Tod" and "Todd") is being circulated to the effect that some of my relatives, or myself, are interested in the "Tod" property. This rumor is absolutely untrue and unfounded, and neither myself, nor any of my relatives, have, or ever had, any interest in the referred to property. Parties circulating this rumor are doing so for malicious purposes. For information enabling me to prosecute and secure conviction of these parties the above reward of Fifty Dollars is offered.

A. E. TODD,
 Mayor of Victoria.

CONGESTION CREATED BY SUGAR CARRIERS NOW AT VANCOUVER

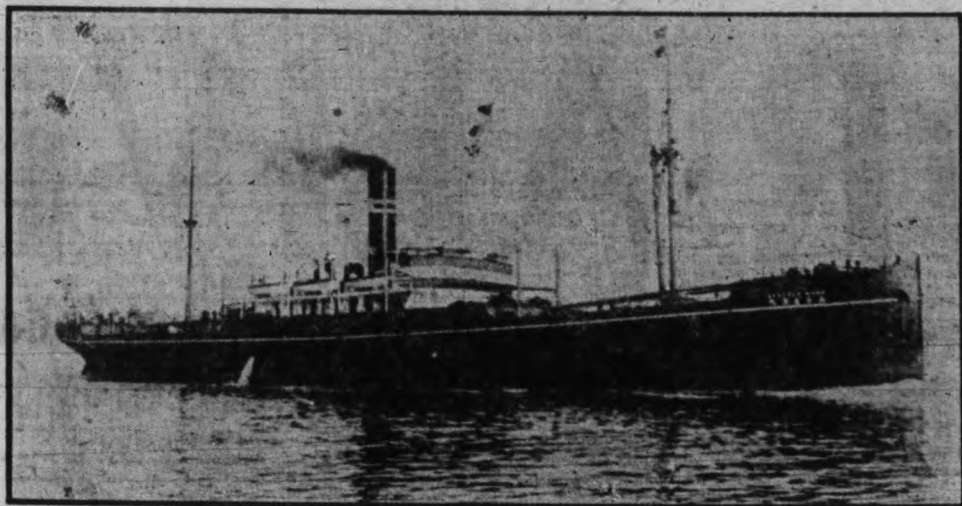

Sugar vessels arriving at Vancouver have created an unprecedented state of congestion. The steamer Somedono Maru completed discharging at the B. C. Sugar Refinery on Saturday and her place at the wharf has been taken by the steamer Astoria, which had been lying in the stream awaiting an opportunity to go alongside. The steamers Manada and Kaifuku Maru, also laden with sugar, reached Vancouver on Saturday, and as only one vessel can unload at the refinery wharf at one time, it is probable that the new arrivals will have to discharge at another wharf.

WAR CARIBOO PUT INTO QUEENSTOWN

B.C.-built Ship and Other Vessels Forced to Seek Shelter From Gale

Queenstown, Ireland, Jan. 13.—The mail steamer West Indian and the British steamships War Cariboo and Galea had to seek shelter here Saturday on account of the seas. The War Cariboo is four months out from Victoria, B. C., and a gigantic sea wave burst her water pipe and put out the fires. The crew was nearly washed overboard by the wave.

The War Cariboo was built at the North Vancouver plant of the Lyall Shipbuilding Company and outfitted for sea at the Ogden Point Assembly plant in Victoria. She was the fifth of the fleet of twenty-seven wooden steamships built on the British Columbia coast for the Imperial Munitions Board to be dispatched to sea. Her original master was Capt. Alan St. Davies, a well known mariner of this port, who was taken seriously ill by reaching Panama and forced to turn his vessel over to Capt. Davidson, the first mate.

Capt. Davies underwent an operation in the American hospital in the canal zone at Colon and upon his re-

LAUREL WHALEN WAS DELAYED AT AUCKLAND

The British auxiliary schooner Laurel Whalen, which was expected to reach the coast this month from Australia has experienced delay in the South Seas, and it is probable that she will not complete her voyage before March.

She is reported to have put back to Auckland on January 2 with engine trouble, and is now effecting repairs at the New Zealand port.

The Laurel Whalen is one of the six auxiliary schooners built here by the Cameron Genoa Mills Shipbuilders, Ltd.

BRITISH NEWSPAPER COMMENTS ON CABINET

London, Jan. 13.—(Reuters's)—Nothing very striking has appeared in the London press comment on the new Cabinet. Most of the papers are disposed to criticize it gently for lack of new blood. The Times, while intimating that it is far from condemning the Ministry altogether, has no hesitation in saying that Mr. Lloyd George's appointments will cause deep disappointment, and that he has not even made the most of such opportunities for reconstruction as he possesses.

The hostile attitude of The Daily News is sufficiently indicated by the heading, "The Puppet Show."

EFFORT TO RESCUE CREW OF CASTALIA

Two Ships Try to Save Men on Vessel off Nova Scotia

Halifax, Jan. 13.—The work of rescuing the forty-four men on the steamship Castalia, which has been in distress off the coast of Nova Scotia since early Saturday morning, has begun shortly after nine o'clock this morning, steamships effecting the rescue are the Bergensford and the War Fijian, which have been standing by since yesterday morning.

The War Fijian is to the lee of the Castalia and the Bergensford to the windward. Following the capsizing of the first lifeboat which left the Castalia and the drowning of two of the seventeen men on board, the War Fijian decided to empty a portion of her cargo of oil on the water in an endeavor to calm the sea, but the following message, timed at 10:11, indicates that the plan was unsuccessful: "After the oil had been spilled it was impossible to hold on to anything in the water. They were as slippery as eels. Besides they could not breathe. Nose and mouth choked."

The C. P. O. S. liner Monteagle, Capt. P. L. Davidson, R. N. R., sailed from Yokohama on January 5 on her return voyage to this port.

ESQUIMALT DOCK NOW IN DEMAND

War Chief Enters Basin Tomorrow Followed by Canora and Rupert

Taking the place of the liner Canada Maru on the keel blocks, the steamship War Chief, one of the 8,800-ton ships built at the False Creek yard of John Coughlan & Sons, will tomorrow enter the Esquimalt drydock for overhaul preparatory to going into commission. The work of overhauling the War Chief will be carried out by Yarrows, Ltd.

After the War Chief comes out of the drydock the C. N. R. car-ferry Canora will enter the basin for scraping and painting before entering the Gulf service.

The Canora returned from the mainland last week end. Another vessel due to enter the Esquimalt basin this week is the G. T. P. steamship Prince Rupert, which is to be temporarily withdrawn from the northern service following her arrival from Anyox and Prince Rupert. After tying up at the G. T. P. dock on Wednesday morning the Prince Rupert will be taken around to Esquimalt for her annual overhaul. She is expected to be out of commission for about three weeks.

RECOVERING BODIES FROM SOPHIA WRECK

The Standing Reward of $50 Offered by C.P.R. Getting Results

Juneau, Jan. 13.—Jacobsen, the local diver, began work Sunday morning on the wreck of the Princess Sophia, recovering additional bodies. Several days ago he examined the wreck and reported the statements made by the British Columbia Salvage Company to the effect that the Sophia had broken in two. Jacobsen claims that the vessel is resting almost on an even keel with only about twenty feet more water at the stern of the ship than at the bow. He believes she can be raised. Jacobsen stated to F. F. W. Lowe, agent for the C. P. R. here, that he felt sure he could go into any stateroom of the ship and recover numerous bodies.

Lowe immediately communicated with the company's officials at Victoria, with the result that a contract was entered into with the diver. Many relatives of people missing in the wreck are anxiously awaiting the result of Jacobsen's work. Numerous claims of property and insurance are being held up on account of lack of evidence that certain persons were drowned on the Sophia, and it is hoped to recover these bodies. If Jacobsen proves his statement that the vessel has not broken in two, it means that the ill-fated steamer will be raised by the company at an early date.

Reward Offered.
Reward of $50 for each body recovered from the wreck of the Princess Sophia has been offered by the C. P. R. this reward having been in effect ever since the coast patrol for bodies was suspended. In a number of cases recently the reward has been earned and the standing offer appears to be acting as an incentive to Northern divers to attempt the recovery of bodies that may be in the submerged wreck.

BARON R. KONDO ON FUSHIMI MARU

Official Reception May Be Tendered Head of Japanese Line

On board the Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Fushimi Maru, which is expected to reach this port on Thursday morning from the Far East is Baron Rempel Kondo, President and Managing Director of the premier steamship corporation of Japan, who is on his way to Europe as a delegate to the peace conference at Versailles. The Japanese mission to the Versailles conference proceeded to Europe from Yokohama via San Francisco some weeks ago. Baron Kondo, at that time was unable to leave Japan, and consequently postponed his departure until the sailing of the crack steamship Fushimi Maru. It is expected that an official reception will be tendered to the head of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha upon his arrival. Baron Kondo was elected President of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha in 1895, succeeding the late T. Yoshikawa, and was re-elected in 1907 upon the expiration of his first term of office.

Reports by Wireless.
The Fushimi Maru reported from seaward today that she would reach William Head about daybreak on Thursday and it is expected that she will come alongside the Outer Docks about 9 a.m. to disembark passengers and discharge a large cargo of Oriental freight.

For Victoria the liner has 169 passengers and 1,321 tons of cargo, the through passengers, numbering 147, being routed to their destinations in the United States and overseas via Seattle and Portland.

The liner Kamo Maru, which is following the Fushimi Maru, is expected to make this port at the end of the week. The Kamo Maru has but 200 tons of freight for this port. Lateman wanted to buy a clock—that is, a reliable clock—and he made the shopman show him a good many before he decided on one. "Now, sir," said the salesman, "this clock will last you a lifetime." Lateman looked dubious. "Why, how can that be?" he asked. "I can see for myself that its hours are numbered!"

NO BIG OFFICIAL INQUIRY INTO VOYAGE OF THE SCANDINAVIAN

Ottawa, Jan. 13.—No report has yet been received by the Militia Department from its offices at St. John, N. B., with regard to complaints by soldiers regarding conditions on board the S. S. Scandinavian on her recent trip to Canada from the United Kingdom, and until official advice comes to headquarters it is unlikely that any action will be taken. The report is expected to-day. It is considered improbable at the Department that any investigation on similar lines to that which has just been concluded into the conditions on the troopship Northland will be made into conditions on board the Scandinavian. The cost will be too great. The charge that one of the medical officers on board the vessels was intoxicated is a grave one, but militia authorities draw attention to the fact that the officer mentioned is not a military man, but belongs to the ship. A wire is being sent to the C. P. R. owners of the vessel, requesting that an investigation be made into the charge of intoxication immediately before the ship leaves port.

In November, 1914, the Mayor and Council of the city of Lyons worked out a system of re-education for French disabled soldiers and the work was begun the following month at L'ecole Joffre. That work spread even at that early date all over France, and has been adopted by England with variations suited to the climate and the nationality of British maimed.

WHEN EDDIE CAME HE DID NOT LOOK LIKE A PUCKCHASER

Old Friends Turned Oatman
Down When He Gave the Glad Hand

When Eddie Oatman, the captain of the Aristocrats, came from the woods to take his part in the Pacific Coast hockey race this year he did not come with a flourish of trumpets, nor was there a big crowd of friends to meet him. Eddie dropped in from Buckley Bay and was around for quite a time before anyone knew he was Oatman, the hockey player who has been battling on the coast since 1914 and been getting big receptions for the game he has played the national sport ever since he put on the blades for professional hockey ten years ago. Oatman is a popular player with lots of friends, who like to give him the glad hand whenever they meet him. If the time of his arrival at Vancouver had been known they would have been on hand to welcome him. Eddie came in quietly and during several days in the Mainland city met a lot of his chums. Several of them passed him on the street, and not recognizing the player, passed by without acknowledgment to his friendly nod or ignoring his proffered hand. "Why, how are you, compliments of the season?" he heard one of his friends say. "None of your business," was the answer he got, so Eddie decided that it was time to do something.

Was Cutting Spruce.
Cutting spruce in the woods, it was all right to wear a beard. Eddie packed his razors up when he was in the woods and had an hirsute beard growing on his upper lip and chin that made him look like a grand old man. He went into a grocery at Vancouver where the puckchaser often goes and got in conversation with Walter Clarke. They talked about a number of things, but it was because Eddie is naturally affable and not because he thought he was talking to a friend. Later Eddie went into a barber's shop where he had been shaved many times and the same barber who had often done so before, performed the operation. As the barber shaved the floor with Eddie's looks a light gradually began to dawn on him. Oatman got his first welcome before he rose from the chair, and then started his rounds over again. He received lots of cordial welcomes on his return to the Pacific Coast hockey race from that moment.

Is Only Twenty-Nine.
The pivot man of the Aristocrats, who got up from a sick-bed brilliantly to lead the side to the first sensational victory at Seattle, is only twenty-nine years of age in spite of the fact that he once possessed a beard and was mistaken for his own father. Yet he has been playing professional hockey for the last ten years and has played on two championship teams. He was on the Quebec line-up when they beat the world in the 1911-1912 series, and then had the same honor with the Portland sepiote two years ago. Rover or right wing has been his position most of the time. He will probably fill the centre position this season, but when a man has the speed that Oatman has, it is enough to give him on the ice. He started his career with Waterloo team in 1909. Lehman was playing Western Ontario hockey at the same time for Berlin, which the patriots with a grudge against Bill Hohenzollern have since changed to Kitchener. Quebec soon singled out the present Aristocrat and after a couple of seasons with Quebec he jumped to "the Coast," and Eddie, "the Coast looks good to me." Between the position of right wing and rover he used to oscillate, but anyone that has seen Eddie play has no doubt that he will make good in the centre position. Since he made his plucky appearance at Seattle and stayed with the hard fighting game at the wish of the boys he was holding so well together he is aces high with the Aristocrats fans, although he is one of those players who is not striving for individual praise. It is all the team with Eddie and his heart and soul is in the success of his side. He is like every ambitious player. He likes to get the goals, but he is satisfied as long as they go in the right net. "We have to get more goals," he said, after expressing his approval of the boys he will captain. "We have got to find the net right at the opening of the game. We had a little touch of Friday, when it was certainly Lehman's day on, but after two game with the team everything looks rosy to me."

FLYING FRENCHMEN ARE AGAIN IN LEAD

Smothered Torontos by Score of 13 to 3 in Game
Saturday

Montreal, Jan. 12.—By defeating Torontos in a National Hockey League fixture at the Jubilee rink on Saturday, 13 to 3, Canadians regained the leadership in the race for the championship.
The match was uninteresting, the Flying Frenchmen smothering their opponents with speed. The Toronto forwards defense played far below their standard, and left the greater portion of the work to be done by Goalkeeper Lindsay. He was unequal to the whole job, and the Blueshirts were given a sound trimming. Never at any stage of the game was the Toronto team dangerous, and not until the majority of the regulars were taken out by Canadians and substitutes sent in did the visitors score, and witnessed the final twenty minutes of the game from the stand. The extremely cold weather had a telling effect on the attendance, which was the smallest of the season, only about a thousand making the journey to the East End rink.

Hamilton Made Good.
Toronto, Jan. 13.—Before the largest crowd of the season Torontos on Saturday night were defeated by Hamilton by the score of seven to five in the O. H. A. senior series. The game was lightning fast from beginning to end, and the 5,200 spectators were given plenty to become enthusiastic. The result proved a shock to the defeated team and their supporters, but the consensus of opinion of those who saw the contest was that, on the play, the better team won.
Hamilton has a great aggregation of puck-chasers, and they are now the favorites to win the group title. The defeated team did not show to good advantage with the exception of the first few minutes of the second round. They played spasmodically.

SHIPYARD TEAM WINS NEWSPAPER TROPHY

Seattle, Jan. 12.—For the third successive year the local Skinner-Eddy soccer team is winner of The Post-Intelligencer trophy, defeating the Todd team, of Tacoma, by three goals to one on a sloppy field and before the biggest crowd of the season at Liberty Park Sunday afternoon. The soccer trophy now becomes the permanent property of the Seattle team.

BOWLERS TOURNAMENT TO BE HELD IN SPRING

Vancouver, Jan. 12.—Local Elks bowlers have decided to form a Vancouver tournament association, and to stage a tournament this spring at a date to be fixed later. This will be the seventh annual tournament of Northwest International Bowling Association. No officers have been elected, but a committee of five has been appointed to select a date and to select a date of suggested officers at a future meeting next Sunday.

LAUGHLIN SAYS HE IS NOT LIKELY TO JUMP

Winnipeg, Jan. 12.—Wilf Laughlin, the star defence player of the Montreal Hockey team, who received an offer of $1000 from the Pacific Coast to play on the Vancouver lineup, and was reported to be holding out for $1,000, Saturday night said he was not likely to make the jump this winter. Laughlin, Jan. 12.—Frank Patrick, Manager of the Vancouver team, said last night that no negotiations had been carried on at all with Laughlin by the Vancouver club. "Frankly," he said, "one of the other clubs, Seattle or Victoria, had made Laughlin an offer, but he was satisfied with the Vancouver lineup as it was."

FRANK VANCE WILL GET BACK INTO ATHLETICS

Frank Vance, well known in amateur athletic circles of the Northwest, will take charge of wrestling at the Seattle Y. M. C. A.
Vance met with much success at the Seattle Athletic Club, where he was an instructor for many years. He is a wrestler of ability himself, and knows how to teach the game to his students.

FOOTBALL FACTS

It is surprising to find that, amongst London Combination clubs, Chelsea is the only one that has obtained every possible point from home matches. The team, which has been playing at Stamford Bridge enclosure, has not yet won at home as Clapton Orient, Fulham, and Millwall.
After the unfortunate accident to Lieut. P. G. H. Pender, who broke his leg in the course of the recent match between Fulham and Clapton Orient, Torrance, the Fulham captain, went into goal and did his work as if born to the job. Torrance has the distinction of having played in first-class football in every one of the eleven positions on the field.
Of 34 players on Manchester City's books when war broke out, 22 have served in the Army or Navy.
The latest professional footballer to be decorated is W. Cook, the clever Sheffield United full-back, who has been awarded the D.C.M. The list of honored footballers is beginning to assume considerable proportions.
PLAN MILITARY OLYMPIC MEET.
Paris, Jan. 12.—A mammoth military Olympic meet to be held in Paris in May or June, under the auspices of the American army, for athletes from all the allied fighting forces, is projected in plans announced to-night.
The champion Boston American team were one of the clubs which did not leave their players outright at the end of the abbreviated season on September 2 last.

SAILORS ON UP IN SOCCER COMPETITION

Ladder

With only one drawn game since they entered the soccer league recorded against them, the sailors of I. M. B. S. Lancaster by their win over the Foundation Company, have jumped to a safe lead in the competition over the Victoria West Brotherhood, last year's city champions. The speedy sailors have been steadily mounting the league ladder, and are favorites for honors for another trophy, having already carried off the Brown Service Cup. The I. M. B. registered their first win in the competition and made one step up the ladder, leaving Yarrows at the bottom. The Victoria Millers Hospital by their win in the Intermediate League put themselves on the same standing as the Foundation Company. With the points deducted from the teams who met James Island now that the Dynamiters have dropped out of the competition, the tables stand:

Senior.	P.	W.	L.	D.	Pts.
Lancaster	3	4	0	1	9
West Brotherhood	6	4	1	1	9
Fragments	6	2	0	4	8
Garrison	7	2	1	4	8
Foundation	9	1	3	5	7
I. M. B.	1	0	3	2	2
Yarrows	7	0	3	4	4

Intermediate.
Foundation P. | W. | L. | D. | Pts. || Vic. Mill. Hospital | 5 | 4 | 0 | 1 | 9 |
Garrison	4	1	3	0	2
I. M. B.	4	1	3	0	2
Yarrows	5	1	4	0	2

Soldiers Drawn Game.
Showers of rain made the ball greasy and hard to judge for the game at Work Point—Fragments vs. Garrison. Fragments opened the scoring after fifteen minutes, Bloom finding the net. Garrison, for Garrison, played good football. A good opportunity was lost by a poor shot by Gale, and later Filmore misdirected with only the goalkeeper in front of him, the shot going wide. The defence of Garrison was at close of half-time, when the score stood one to nothing in favor of the veterans. Pretty forward work by Tipper, Gale, and Filmore kept the ball in Fragments' half and after falling twice through hard luck and poor shooting Filmore at last evened up the score by a good dropping shot into the net. Townsend, who ran out to meet him, could not reach. Townsend did some sterling work against the Garrison's attacks. Figgott, Messer, Bowers and Gomm did fine work throughout the game for Fragments. Rough put in a fine shot, just grazing the top. Bloom and his forwards worked well together but the defence of Figgott, Beale and Messer was too good.

Shipyard's Ahead.
The game at Central Park between Yarrows and the I. M. B. in the Intermediate League, did not get under way till 2.30 o'clock, the I. M. B. turning up two men short. The ground was soft, the ball heavy and the game resembled at times a scramble.
The first goal went to the I. M. B. on a decision which was strongly disputed by the Yarrows' supporters, who claimed the ball hit the goal post and rebounded into the I. M. B. net. The referee, however, held to his decision though.
From the kickoff Yarrows went right up and O'Connell evened the score before half-time from a penalty.

The second half developed more scrambles, chiefly in front of the I.M.B. goal, but the Yarrows forward showed great weakness in shooting hitting every point of the compass except that between the goal-posts. Luck changed, however, and they registered twice in succession. The I. M. B. forward developed some combination, which ended with a shot that tested Ricketts. The bombardment began at the I. M. B. goal again, and Yarrows added another, leaving the final score, Yarrows four, I. M. B. one.
The I. M. B. defence was good and the outside wing-men had their hands full. The Yarrows' defence was not so good. Walton was safe on the back line for Yarrows and Sammy never let the ball get by. Rutledge was the best of the Yarrows' defence, and O'Connell was the most effective of the forwards.

Hospital Easy Win.
The Byng Boys had a walkover with the Garrison as their opponents at Oak Bay. The Garrison had only nine men on the field, but managed to win the match on one occasion while the Hospital put through nine goals. Came got through five times and Clarkson twice. Hawkes and Devlin scored the other two goals.

ONE OF FRAGMENTS CALLED BY DEATH

Veteran of Ypres Leaves Wife
Suffering From Influenza, and Two Children

Football players will bear with regret of the death which occurred Saturday of Clement James William Freeman, who has been playing right half this season for the Fragments From France soccer eleven. Freeman, who was only 32 years of age, leaves a wife and two young children. He had seen considerable service in the war, being one of the first men to respond to the call. He enlisted with the 16th Canadian Scottish in Vancouver on September 23, 1914, and was with the Canadians in France in the strenuous days of the early part of the war. He was at Ypres, Neuve Chapelle and Festubert. He was first wounded at the Second Battle of Ypres, but returned to the firing line and did not leave France until May 29, after the capture of Vimy Ridge. He had been absent from the soccer eleven for some time through sickness for a couple of weeks. Mrs. Freeman also being ill with influenza at her home, 1712 Bank Street.
The members of the Club have changed the date of their meeting which was set for Thursday to Monday to make arrangements for the funeral of their dead comrade. Some of the players will act as pallbearers, and it is hoped arrangements can be made for a military funeral.

An international Rugby football match has been provisionally arranged by the French Union of Athletic Societies between France and South Africa at Toulouse February 14.

Navin also announced that Bill Donovan probably will manage a minor league club.

SEVERAL SURPRISES IN SOCCER LEAGUE

Foundation and Lancaster
High Scoring Game: I.M.B.
Beat Yarrows

The Foundation Company made a big effort to continue the point grabbing streak in the league in their game against the Lancaster on the Canteen grounds, but in a hard fought game they lost by six goals to four. Until the final whistle blew the shipyard workers were fighting hard against the league stars for the decision, and the large number of spectators present were given a sample of good soccer. At half time the score stood three goals to two. The score was opened by the Foundation Company soon after the start, but the sailors found the net about ten minutes afterwards, and quickly followed with another goal. The sailors lasted the pace better in the second half, and after opening the scoring immediately had to resist some strenuous attacks from the Foundation Company forwards, who found the net twice. Interest ran high, as the Foundation Company worked to lower the Lancaster colors, but the sailors broke through a couple of times and made the game safe. The teams were:
I. M. S. Lancaster—Leigh, Green and Samuelson; Moule, Foley and Shingleton; Mercer, Bevan, Nicholas and Bibby.
Foundation—Humber; Rutter and Brown; Crawley, Chester and Allen; Hillier, E. Bridges, Davis, Munro and Crozier.

Trying hard for goals from the outside, the I. M. B. handed out defeat to Yarrows at Beacon Hill in a close contest by three goals to two. Soon after the whistle blew for the game to start the muniton workers were on top of Yarrows' goal, but once the shipbuilders had cleared the leather stayed in the I. M. B. half for a long time, and Lock had a busy period, during which he made a number of good saves. Up to half time the I. M. B. had obtained a lead of two goals, Watt finding the net each time. Cloke registered the third point for the muniton workers in the second half. Thackeray found the net for Yarrows, and the second goal resulted from a melee in front of the goalmouth. The teams were:
Yarrows—Baker; Ored and Bell; McIlroy, Smith and Brown; Fulton, Douglass, Thackeray, Kerley and Erskine.
I. M. B.—W. Lock; Newlands and Cloke; McGill, Bruis and Lougland; Scott, White, Watt, Jones and Scarffe.

NO SKATING TO-NIGHT AFTER HOCKEY GAMES

Foundation vs. Elks and Senators vs. Two Jacks will be the games to open the amateur hockey schedule at the Victoria rink to-night. The first game will start at 7.30 o'clock. It was originally intended to allow the spectators to take the ice after the game, but owing to other arrangements it has been found necessary to withdraw the privilege.

DEMILITARIZATION AS RAPID AS POSSIBLE

Government Will Bring Back Dependents of Canadian Soldiers Overseas

Ottawa, Jan. 12.—A statement issued by the Director of Public Information to-day says:

"The office of the Ministry of Overseas Military Forces in Canada, which has issued a most important statement regarding the demobilization of the Canadian troops overseas and the new scheme of substituting for the old post discharge pay a system of war service gratuities on a sliding scale in accordance with length of service.

"Provision also is made for the return to their homes in Canada of dependents of officers, N. C. O.'s and men of the C. E. F. sent to Canada for demobilization.

"The scheme of war service gratuities and the return of dependents are retroactive, that is, all ranks who already had been discharged in Canada prior to November 11, 1918, and had served at the front in an actual theatre of war, will be placed on the same basis as those still to take discharge, and all dependents who paid their passages home since November 11 will have their fares refunded.

"These generous arrangements will be hailed with the liveliest satisfaction by the overseas troops and their families, especially as assurance is given that the demobilization scheme is being carried out with the utmost possible speed.

"The official statement reads as follows: "Deeply appreciative of the devotion and cheerfulness with which all ranks of the Canadian Expeditionary Force have carried out their duties during their service overseas, the Government of Canada is bending all its efforts to securing the utmost dispatch in the demobilization of the overseas military forces of Canada and the return of the officers and men, together with their dependents now overseas, to their homes in Canada.

"It is recognized that the period of waiting for discharge is necessarily trying one and all ranks are invited to co-operate with the Government in establishing during this period a fresh record for that splendid discipline and cheerful adherence to duty which has won for the Canadian troops as high a respect as their accomplishments in the field.

"It should be realized that the speed of demobilization largely depends upon transport facilities in France, and it is hoped that due credit will be given to both the French and British authorities for the efforts, and even sacrifices, they are making to secure the speedy return of the soldiers and their dependents to their homes in Canada.

"The work will be further expedited as soon as the advent of Spring makes navigation possible in the St. Lawrence River.

To See Relatives.

"Many officers and men have relatives in the United Kingdom whom they may wish to see before their return home, and arrangements will be made for such meetings where they are desired.

"As a mark of gratitude on the part of the people of Canada to the troops who have so long and so gallantly carried out their duties overseas, the Government has decided to abolish the old post discharge pay and introduce war gratuities on a scale more commensurate with the services which have been rendered.

"These war gratuities recognize the length of overseas service, which was not done under the former provision. For the purpose of these payments, all 'other ranks' except first-class warrant officers are placed upon the same footing in regard to the rate of pay."

"The statement then gives in detail the gratuities to be paid showing that men of three years' service and over, with dependents who received separation allowance will receive $600 in all, those of two years' service and over, $450; those of one year and over, $300, and those of under one year, $200. Soldiers without dependents receiving separation allowance will receive gratuities as follows: Three years' service and over, $450; two years' service and over, $350; one year's service and over, $250; under one year, $120.

"Officers and first-class warrant officers will receive the same gratuities as approved for other ranks at their respective rates of pay."

AUTOISTS CAN HELP VOLUNTEER NURSES

By Taking Them From Case to Case; Helpers Should Phone 1025

Mrs. H. B. Robertson, President of the Victorian Order of Nurses, appeals to the owners of automobiles on behalf of the many volunteer nurses who are fighting the second wave of Spanish influenza.

She asks that those who are anxious to assist in stamping out the epidemic agree to take the nurses from case to case as occasion demands, arrangements which Mrs. Robertson will make and ensure the maximum of service with the minimum of trouble for those who are good enough to lend their aid.

It is also suggested that a great deal of assistance could be rendered to the already overworked nurses were automobilists to offer them a lift from the street.

Any aid in these two connections will be warmly appreciated by the Order and volunteer auto helpers should phone to Mrs. Robertson at 1025.

A TROOP TRAIN IN QUEBEC IN COLLISION BUT NO FATALITIES

Quebec, Jan. 12.—Another troop train came very near meeting the same fate as the one which was derailed with heavy casualties on Christmas Eve near Edmundston, N. B. This time the mishap occurred on the I. C. R. near Valbrillant, Rimouski, on Saturday. A troop train was stalled near the station, and the Ocean Limited, running late, crashed into it. The last coach of the train, a caboose, was smashed to kindling wood and destroyed by fire. The soldiers on the train were given a severe shaking up, but no one was hurt.

Montreal, Jan. 12.—If the Canadian people will only keep their heads during the present year and during the period of re-absorption into civil life of the returned soldiers, there will be no hardships for the latter, nor for the men and women who lost their employment in military works owing to the cessation of hostilities. This was the assurance given by Senator Robertson, Minister of Labor, in an address to the United Win-the-War Club here at a meeting held on Saturday night.

TORONTO AUDIENCE CHEERED LIEBKNECHT

Toronto, Jan. 12.—Twelve hundred workers of both sexes attended a meeting in Broadway Hall here last night, which had been called by the Workers' Political Defence League to protest against the sentencing by Magistrate Kingsford, of Charles Watson to three years in prison and a fine of $500 for having prohibited literature in his possession and to demand the release of all political prisoners. Feeling ran high as the meeting progressed, until at the conclusion the audience wildly cheered Karl Liebknecht and the Socialists.

SHOW LITTLE CHANGE

Shipping Shares Were Subject to Liquidation

(By Burdick Bros. & Brett, Ltd.)

New York, Jan. 12.—The stock market was dull and uninteresting affair to-day. Quotations as a whole showed little change at the close. International Mercantile Marine shares lost ground under steady liquidation. The steel stocks were irregular. United States Steel made up a fraction of lost ground, while Bethlehem Steel sold into new low figures for the movement, a report being current that the next dividend would show a reduction. Quotations on oil stocks, Texas Company and California Petroleum made substantial gains on comparatively few transactions. The railroad stocks were neglected, but there was no stock offering for sale.

WOULD EFFECT A RE-ORGANIZATION

Changes in Board of Trade Will Be Considered at Next
Quarterly Meeting

A partial reorganization of the Victoria Board of Trade will be considered some three months from now, recommendations to this effect having been introduced in the form of notices of motion at the recent quarterly meeting. The move suggested will consist in the abolition of many of the present standing committees, and the formation in their place of sections which would have power to govern themselves to a considerable extent. The system of sections has long been in existence in the Boards of Trade of Eastern Canada and the United States. The sections, if formed here, would be to all intents and purposes small Boards of Trade. They would be self-governing with the limitation that they do nothing contrary to the charter, by-laws and regulations of the parent body. The sections for instance would have the power to create sub-sections to deal with different questions, and they could frame by-laws for their own conduct.

Under the proposed system, after the annual assembly of the Board, a meeting would be called to appoint chairmen who would become ex-officio members of the Council, thus forming a link between the sections and the Board.

It is proposed that sections should be created to deal with the following subjects: Trade and Transport, Resources, Jobbing and Manufacturing, Retail Merchandising, Domestic Affairs and Automobiles. Provision is made for the formation of additional sections to any number four, necessary, while the standing committees would be three: Harbor and Navigation, Railway Freights, and Ways and Means.

Under the suggested plan the president, with the approval of the Council, would name the chairmen of these committees who would be members of the Council. It is stated that the system, if inaugurated, would make it possible to enlarge the scope of the Board of Trade to any extent, the only stipulation being that every one taking part must be a member.

Notice has also been given of a motion to eliminate the regulation which makes it necessary to hold general meetings at three o'clock in the afternoon.

WANTING PROTECTION

Company Responsible for the Construction of Dolly Varden Mines Railway in Trouble

Representing the Taylor Engineering Company of Vancouver, Mr. Taylor called upon Premier Oliver this morning to seek protection for the creditors of his concern on account of the situation which has arisen in connection with the construction of the Dolly Varden Mines Railway.

The railway in question was partially constructed by the Taylor concern when a tangle in the negotiations relating thereto involved a dispute as to who was responsible for payment of the work. As a result of this the constructing company was compelled to assign some time ago.

NO FIGHT IN DUNCAN CITY CIVIC ELECTION

North Cowichan Will Have One
Contest for School Trustees

Duncan, Jan. 13.—At one-forty-five this afternoon—with fifteen minutes to elapse—there is slight possibility of an election in the city of Duncan.

Unless other names are brought forward in the specified time Thomas Pitt will be the Mayor of Duncan for the year 1919. The Aldermanic bench of four members will be constituted by H. S. Prevost, H. W. Dickie, W. A. McAdam and, although he had not announced himself at a quarter to two, it is expected that D. R. Hattie would complete the requisite number.

Thomas Pitt retired from the Board of School Trustees although he had still a year to run. In his place W. L. Dunn was nominated and, with Mrs. Macdonald, will go in by acclamation. No Police Commissioners had been nominated at the time of writing.

For the Municipality of North Cowichan, J. Islay Mutter is the only nomination for Reeve. The four Council members nominated so far are E. W. Carr-Hilton, Peter Campbell, Percy Stephenson and R. S. Smith. There are two vacancies for School Trustees and three aspirants. The only contest will probably be to settle the honors for School Trusteeship, the contestants being Mark Green, L. Hamilton and G. Tisdale. No Police Commissioners are nominated.

Change in Ford Policy

Genuine Ford Parts at any Reliable Garage

The Ford Policy in the past has been to supply repair parts only through Ford dealers.

The number of Ford Cars in use is growing so rapidly that wider provision for Ford service must now be made.

Many Garages not authorized to handle Ford Service have been repairing Ford Cars and using parts of inferior quality (parts not manufactured by Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited), thus causing inconvenience and additional expense to the Ford owner.

It has, therefore, been decided to supply genuine Ford parts—made in the Ford Plant—to any reliable Garage which is rendering service to Ford owners.

TO THE OWNER—This means that wherever he goes he will find a Garage giving an authorized Ford Service.

The familiar Ford sign will be displayed everywhere, and it will mark the Garages where genuine Ford parts are supplied.

It will no longer be necessary to "hunt up" any special Garage to obtain Genuine Ford parts.

It will not be necessary to accept any parts that are not made by Ford—the Ford owner can demand genuine Ford parts.

This will mean authorized Ford service everywhere—greater convenience—better service—prompter service.

TO THE GARAGE MAN—This new Ford policy makes it possible for every good Garage to become a Ford authorized Service Station. This means that he can secure genuine Ford parts—made by Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited—at a discount; that he can, by improving his service to Ford owners, build up a larger trade in this rapidly growing part of the Garage business.

"FIRST CANADIAN" IS IN VICTORIA

Captain W. H. Marsden, Regimental Number "One," a Visitor to City

The first enlisted man of the Canadian Expeditionary Force is visiting Victoria and is registered at the Strathcona Hotel—Capt. W. H. Marsden, formerly sergeant-major of the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, who expects soon to be on his way to Siberia on important military duties. The captain, before he received his commission, held regimental number one, the numbers of the P.P.C.L.I. starting with the unit, and Captain Marsden being the first enlisted man of the battalion. He wears the Military Cross, Distinguished Conduct Medal, Meritorious Service Medal, King and Queen's South African Medals and also will be entitled to the Mons Star under the order recently announced.

The captain, whose picture was published in many of the illustrated papers of England after he was wounded and shell-shocked, as the "First Canadian to Enlist," expected to leave with a number of other officers who came to Victoria to embark for Siberia, but arrived a day or two late for the boat and expects to be in the city for a few days. When he enlisted with the first contingent he was fortunate in enlisting with the battalion whose numbers started at one, and the captain being the first man to attest got the first number. He is modest over his decorations. "Lots of men earn them," he said, "but only some of them are lucky enough to get them." The captain received his commission for gallant work in the field after being wounded at Vimy Ridge. He was also on one occasion on a troopship which was torpedoed.

Liability for Taxes.—City Solicitor Hannington has written to the City Council stating that in his opinion the lands occupied by the Foundation Shipbuilding Company on the old Bonhomme Reserve are subject to taxation. Bodwell & Lawson, solicitors for the Imperial Munitions Board, objected to the assessment on the grounds that the Board was in possession and represented the King. Mr. Hannington states that the land was handed over to the Foundation Company and therefore the taxes should be paid.

TO COLLECT COPPERS

Victorians Will Help to Buy Milk for Belgian and French Babies

The collection of coppers to provide milk for the babies of France and Belgium will be started in this city shortly, and milk bottles, suitably prepared, will soon be placed at various points in the city. Thomas Palmer, Deputy Chief of Police, has been appointed by the Commission for Aid, Civil and Military, France and Belgium, under the patronage of the Queen of the Belgians, to distribute a large supply of these bottles. It is his intention to have them placed, if possible, at places of business where coppers are generally used, such as in moving picture shows. The police will attend to the collection and distribution of bottles, while the Royal Bank will take care of the money collected.

CENSORSHIP COMES IN FOR CRITICISM

Labor Meeting Hears W. A. Pritchard of Vancouver on Subject

"Plenty of censor and very little sense," was the description of the Canadian functionary and his duties, used by W. A. Pritchard, of Vancouver, at a public meeting held in the Columbia Theatre last night under the auspices of the Victoria Trades and Labor Council. The Vancouver orator was discoursing on the censorship regulations obtaining in the Dominion of Canada at the present time, and in particular holding up to ridicule a system that would permit free circulation of Dr. Karl Marx's "Capital" in England and the United States during war time and yet debar the same work from Canada.

His Specimen Ban.
Mr. Pritchard explained to his audience the fact that nearly a quarter of a century ago Charles H. Kerr, of Chicago, had purchased the copyright of "Capital" from the well-known London publishing house of Swan, Sonnenschein & Company, the sale including the actual electronic copyright of the Old Country editions of "Capital" had been printed. The American impressions had similarly come from these self-same plates.

"Here is my position in Canada, then," meditated the speaker: "I can hold in my right hand a copy of the work as originally produced in England and be quite free from the censorial interference. I can hold another edition of the same work printed from the same plates, but bearing the Chicago publisher's imprint, in my left hand and go to jail for five years for possessing it."

"Much Censor—Little Sense."
"As I said before, there is plenty of censor down at Ottawa, but very little sense. Colonel Chambers seems to imagine," he proceeded with acidity, "that there is a great deal more danger to the British Empire in a colony of eight million people than there is at home, where forty-eight million people live and have their being, the circulation of Karl Marx's 'Capital' notwithstanding."

Mr. Pritchard had a good deal to say about the newspapers. Some had been suppressed for other things more significant than for copying their jokes from the Winnipeg Telegram. The Western Clarion, he said, had fallen into disfavor because it chose to delve into the academic rather than to pander to the hysterical. He declared that specific questions directed to the censor had failed to elicit a specific answer. Several requests for an expression from the censor as to what particular published articles had produced official wrath had missed their mark.

Got No Answers.
"All that we did get," recalled the speaker, "was a collection of excerpts from the Clarion between September, 1917, and July, 1918. The Clarion was not suppressed, however, until October, 1918. The crux of the situation lay in what had been published since January, 1918," he declared. From that time no intelligent answer had been received from Col. Chambers to a number of specific inquiries.

From this point Mr. Pritchard digressed into the historical development of the means of production. And as the old-time artisan and the small business had given way to the modern contrivances, first steam power and later electric energy, it had been found necessary to give the worker elementary education. To delve into the sciences or to discover some of the fundamental agencies governing the lot of the workers, however, were proletarian aspirations deemed fitting for prohibition by the censor.

Just sufficient education to enable the worker to stand up before the modern machine and operate it, said Mr. Pritchard, was the extent of educational toleration. After that, during the war period, the censor could use his judgment. And his judgment could be summed up in the class of action which controlled the circulation of Karl Marx's "Capital," said he.

Very Rude, Mr. Pritchard!
Nothing was to be gained by the abolition of discussion of the vital subjects of the day he declared. The labor party had nothing to fear from the censor. The right of free expression was a right to progress. Here the speaker contrasted last night's meeting with the gathering of a privileged few who sat behind closed doors round a green baize topped table presiding in legislation for the workers, whom they did not understand in scarcely any particular. Their balderdash, however, "is served up to us in the literary 'tripe' sheets' we get each day under the name of newspapers," said Mr. Pritchard as he tried a popular rally at the expense of the Press.

tion of imperialistic debt collecting agencies.

Democracy in the Making.
Mr. Pritchard said that no matter how many millions of gallons of Allied blood were to be spilt in combatting the Soviet regime, and no matter how successful it might be in subduing it, nothing could overthrow the conditions which had brought the Soviets into existence. "And what are you going to put in its place?" asked Mr. Pritchard on the supposition that the Soviets could be overthrown.

He declared that the Labor Party had taken its stand against intervention because it saw that much working class blood would be spilt in the operation that could ill be spared. "We are more concerned about the position labor is to occupy in the period of reconstruction rather than in the collection of French debts through the Siberian expedition. A power to the Workingmen and Soldiers' Council," said Mr. Pritchard, "That is where Democracy is in the making, and when you see the same thing in this country, you will know that Democracy is in the making here."

"NO INCREASE IN TAX RATE"
J. Taylor, of the Victoria Trades and Labor Council, favored the abolition of the Military Service Act, the lifting of the censorship and so on.

Mr. Diggon, Candidate for Saanich Reeveship, Makes Statement

When asked yesterday whether he was in favor of increasing the tax rate of the Saanich Municipality for 1919, Councillor H. M. Diggon, candidate for Reeveship, said: "Certainly not," and further stated that his record on the Council during the past three years—a Council that has placed the credit of Saanich Municipality second to none in B. C.—surely indicated that he does not support extravagant expenditures. "I am a strong advocate," he said, "of the defined area idea, whereby a certain section of the Municipality needing improvements can agree by-law, to assess the total cost to all within such area." He assisted in inducing the Provincial Government to grant this power to Municipalities over a year ago. "I am well aware," he said, "that there is pressing need for sewers, drainage, street lighting, etc., in some sections of the ward adjacent to the city, and am anxious to cause data to be secured as to cost of installation, for submission to the ratepayers, but it must be distinctly understood that the cost of such schemes must be borne by the people benefited. It is possible to refrain from taxing a large tract of land, even though it be, strictly speaking, within the ward, providing of the surplus revenue that the Council can use for the benefit of the ward."

COUNCIL REGRETS REEVE'S DECISION

Saanich Councillors Praise Work of Retiring Official

At its last meeting held on Saturday, the Saanich Council for 1918 paused to congratulate Reeve on the work done through the year, and to express its keen regret at the retirement of its Reeve and two of its members.

The withdrawal of Reeve Borden and Councillors Tanner and Somers was a great loss to the municipality, said Councillor Diggon, who paid tribute to the services of these gentlemen, and to the work of Clerk Cowper and his efficient staff.

Councillor Tanner thought that the coming election would see the break up of a happy family, and he warned those members who intended to remain in office that they had many problems to face in the new year. Though he had determined to retire from the Council, Councillor Somers announced that, after several years of service, he was not going to lose his interest in the affairs of the municipality. The coming election for Reeve, said Councillor Jones, who will figure in that contest, was going to be a hard fight, and he hoped a very honest one. It was not advisable, remarked Councillor Henderson, that the new Council should comprise too many members who had not sat before, and with this
